HURT BY HUNT STATEMENT

Guide Defends Everest Role

KATMANDU, Nepal (AP)—New bickering revolved today about the conquerors of Mount Everest. Since their ascent of the world's highest mountain, the climbers or their supporters have been plunged into at least four wrangles.

Most of them concern Tensing, the veteran climber from Nepal's Sherpa tribe who made the final push to the top with New Zealander Sir Edmund Hillary.

The previous bones of contention have been:

1. Just who reached the top first, Hillary or Tensing?
  2. What is Tensing's nationality, Nepalese or Indian?
  3. What decoration is Britain going to give the tribesman—the prized George Cross, the nearly so valued George Medal, or something else?
- And now, Tensing told reporters after his arrival here, he "feels hurt" by statements made recently at a press conference by Col. Sir John Hunt, the leader of the successful British expedition.

Tensing took exception particularly to statements credited to Hunt that the Asian climber, although a full member of the party, played only a secondary role as leader of the porters, and that Tensing "is a good climber within the limits of his experience."

Tensing said he'd been a member of seven of the 11 Everest expeditions, "was born in the foothills of the Himalayas, bred in the atmosphere of the Himalayas and have seen more climbing in the wide world. I know both sides of Everest, the Tibetan and the Nepalese side. And yet my leader says my experience is limited."

On the successful climb, he asserted, "I practically directed operations from Katmandu, erecting camp sites, cutting steps and crossing icefalls."

Tensing, Hillary and Hunt all have emphasized they considered the question of just whose foot was first on Everest's top immaterial, that it was a team operation.

Hunt, however, said Hillary in the final climb was seen leading most of the way. Asking, "Why not give the devil his due?" Tensing said actually he was a few steps ahead to the top, though he emphasized: "The credit goes to both. We both reached the summit almost together."

Regarding his nationality, the Sherpa has said only: "I was born in the womb of Nepal, but brought up in the lap of India. Though born in Nepal, he now lives in Darjeeling, India."

Reports soon after the Everest conquest said the Queen was going to present the coveted George Cross, Britain's highest award for civilian valor, to Tensing. She already has knighted Hunt and Hillary for their climb.

But touchy Asian pride was affronted by subsequent rumors that Tensing would get only the lower-ranking George Medal. So far British officials have said only that they are discussing with Nepal's government what decoration would be suitable.

Both Tensing and Hillary will be given a specially-designed gold medal by India at a reception June 29.

NICKNAME 'BETTY' NO NEWS HERE

COWDRAY PARK, Eng. (AP)—Queen Elizabeth is just plain Betty to her handsome husband, the Duke of Edinburgh.

The Queen was watching the Duke play polo here Sunday when he rode up to her box and tossed her his dark glasses, saying: "Catch these, Betty."

Queen Betty missed, and a lady-in-waiting retrieved the glasses.

(The fact that Queen Elizabeth is "Betty" to her husband comes as no surprise to Victorians. They recall a story of the couple's visit here in October, 1951, when the then Prince Phillip was heard to call his wife "Betty" coming down in an elevator of the Empress Hotel.)

QUEEN TO START GRAND TOUR

Scots Prepare Royal Welcome

EDINBURGH, Scotland (UP)—Queen Elizabeth comes to Scotland Tuesday to begin the grand tour of her realm that will take her round the world.

The rousing welcome awaiting her from the Scots underlined Elizabeth's popularity as individual Queen to all her peoples.

London has had its Coronation. Now it is the turn of Scotland and then northern Ireland, Wales and the Dominions across the seas. The Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh sail late this year for Australia, New Zealand and Ceylon by way of the Panama Canal.

In this birthplace of the Stuarts, Elizabeth will get a tremendous welcome climaxed by a magnificent ceremony Wednesday when she will ride with her husband in an open carriage to St. Giles Cathedral for a "Second Coronation."

There the "Honors of Scotland," the regalia of the Scottish kings, will be borne before her to the altar where they will rest during the service. It will be the first time they have been carried in procession since George IV visited Scotland 131 years ago.

Edinburgh was as jammed today as was London at the height of the Coronation observances. Hotel rooms were sold out weeks ago and hundreds of visitors were staying in Glasgow, an hour's train ride away.

Elizabeth will stay in Scotland until next Monday. She also visits Paisley, Glasgow, Ritherlen, Lanark, Hamilton, Motherwell, Airdrie and Coatbridge. On Friday she presents colors to the 1st Battalion, the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders.

PHILADELPHIA FIRE TRAPS AT LEAST 12

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Twelve persons were believed to be trapped in a four-story warehouse that collapsed, exploded and caught fire when a speeding tractor trailer rammed into the building today.

The fire marshal at the scene ordered 12 litters. George Hink, chief engineer of the fire department, said "there were plenty" inside. "They didn't have chance to get out," he said.

U.S. SENDS MESSAGE TO RHEE

Couriers Carry Secret Dispatch

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two assistant secretaries of state were to leave here by special plane this afternoon with a message from State Secretary John Foster Dulles to President Syngman Rhee of South Korea.

The state department in announcing this gave no hint about the nature of the message.

LONDON (UP)—Britain has sent a strong note to South Korea expressing its "shock" at President Syngman Rhee's release of anti-Communist war prisoners. Prime Minister Winston Churchill announced today.

"As a member of the United Nations whose military forces are participating in the Korean action, Her Majesty's government strongly condemn this treacherous violation of the authority of the UN command to which the government of Korea had agreed. Churchill said in a House of Commons statement.

CLARK SEES RHEE
SEOUL (AP)—Gen. Mark Clark, United Nations commander, said today he is authorized to sign a Korean armistice even if South Korea does not agree to it.

The UN commander-in-chief did say whether he would sign a truce; "that depends on instructions from my government."

He made the statements to reporters after conferring an hour and a half with South Korean President Syngman Rhee.

Clark said he was encouraged by the talk.

He indicated Rhee does not now plan to yank his 16 Korean divisions from the UN.

Clark said he had always been his understanding that if Rhee should "consider taking such a 'disastrous action' the South Korean president would 'discuss it with me before he came to a decision.'"

"That time has not come," he said.

Clark was asked whether he would sign an armistice without Rhee's advance approval.

He replied that the armistice is between the UN commander and the Red Chinese-North Korean command.

"I am authorized to sign an armistice," he said.

JOHN CHRISTIE PLEADS INSANITY

Mild-Mannered Clerk Goes on Trial For His Life for Murder of Eight Women

By ROBERT BRANSON

LONDON (UP)—Owlsh John Christie, who has confessed the murders of four women, today pleaded not guilty by reason of insanity to charges of murdering his 55-year-old wife.

The mild-mannered British clerk, called London's most blood-thirsty sex killer since Jack the Ripper, had to be prompted by his attorney before entering his plea. He is accused of slaying seven other women.

His defense counsel promptly advised the court that the defense would be based on a claim that Christie was insane at the time of the murders.

The defense strategy was revealed by Derek Curtis-Bennett, chief counsel for the thin-haired former air raid warden, whose "house of horrors" on drab Notting Hill yielded eight female bodies.

Christie went on trial for his life at London's grim Old Bailey for only one of the murders of which he is accused—that of his 55-year-old wife, Ethel. This is keeping with British law.

But Christie has admitted under questioning that he killed three other women, allegedly because they made excessive sexual demands on him. Scotland Yard authorities unearthed four additional bodies in the garden behind his shabby flat.

REQUIRED BY LAW

At the opening of his trial, Christie pleaded innocent. Such a plea is required by British law of anyone accused of murder.

But after the formality of the plea of innocence, Curtis-Bennett, famed criminal attorney, said the defense will acknowledge freely that Christie killed four women. He said he would

FORESTRY MAN WILL FIGHT SUSPENSION

A. B. Crowe Starts Grievance Action

One of two senior civil servants suspended last week by the provincial government has decided to start grievance procedure through the B.C. Government Employees' Association.

A. B. Crowe, forestry department mechanical superintendent suspended by Lands and Forest Minister R. E. Sommers for allegedly failing to follow proper procedure on handling of tenders, said today he will go ahead with grievance action unless the association starts it without his request.

"I feel I can't take it any longer," Mr. Crowe said. "I simply can't take this lying down."

Lou Holker, one of the three Oak Bay Seafarers protesting the suspension of two senior civil servants, said today he may quit the Social Credit party, "unless they play the game and run things on the level."

"At first I thought I'd just sit back and take it. But now I realize if I don't fight, it makes it look as if I'm guilty. And I'm definitely not guilty."

"I have an open and shut case. I know I'm in the clear. The more I think of it the more I know I must fight this action. It's an absolute injustice."

MEET TODAY

Mr. Crowe is waiting to hear from the executive of the government employees' association which is meeting in Vancouver today. He said it's possible the association may fight his case without a request for an official complaint from himself.

"If they don't go ahead on their own, I'll file grievance procedure," said Mr. Crowe. "This will force an inquiry into the issue."

NO COMMENT

Meanwhile, D. A. C. Smith, purchasing commission buyer who also was suspended for one month, remains silent about his future action. He declined to comment on the possibility of his starting grievance action.

Mr. Smith, who has worked for the government for 30 years, plans to go away for a week's rest.

Premier W. A. C. Bennett, who Saturday refused to lift the suspensions, and Finance Minister Einar Gunderson, who refused to make public the tenders involved, have left town for a Toronto party conference.

Mr. Gunderson, replying to the Oak Bay Seafarers Association's request for a public inquiry into the suspensions, said "if it becomes necessary, we'll hold an inquiry when the House sits."

The Legislature is expected to meet September 15. The suspensions expire July 15.

CLOSED SESSION

The Oak Bay group will meet Wednesday night at St. Mary's Hall, Yale Street, in closed session to discuss the issue.

The government holds that the two officials acted wrongly, but not dishonestly, in allowing a Vancouver firm to revise its bid on a $16,000 grader after tenders had been opened.

Russians Admit Violence Continues Against Regime

By TOM REEDY

BERLIN (AP)—Communist East Germany admitted today sabotage has occurred in the Soviet-managed uranium mines and that violence has continued elsewhere against the Red puppet regime.

The Communist party leadership hurled new face-saving charges, claiming that Western agents had parachuted into East Germany to spread havoc after the workers' revolt flared last Wednesday. United States officials labeled the accusations as fantastic.

ADN, the Soviet-controlled German news agency, confirmed reports that the anti-Red mutiny had struck in the Saxony uranium fields which have been exploited by the Russians since 1947 in the atomic weapons race.

No estimate of damage was given. A West Berlin newspaper, Telegraf, reported Sunday that 100,000 Germans went on strike Thursday in the Saxony uranium mines after a Soviet firing squad executed 12 anti-Red demonstrators. The strikers represented more than one-third of the men in the mines.

Charges that American and West German money and effort supplied paratrooper saboteurs to keep the flames of revolt alive were contained in a Socialist Unity Communist party declaration which pleaded with East Germans to get back to work and support the Red government. The party declaration said a "great number" of the paratroopers had been captured but admitted that in the sixth day of Soviet martial law "quiet is not yet entirely secured."

U.S. officials in Berlin in denying the paratrooper accusation said the Russians had recorded only one violation of the East zone's air sovereignty outside the Allied corridors this month and that was 10 days ago. It involved an American jet fighter plane. Said a senior American official:

"The idea of parachuting underground saboteurs into the Soviet zone is ridiculous. They'd better realize as long as this Communist gang is in power there are already 18,000,000 there."

The sealed-off Soviet sector released trains for West Berlin's elevated system, which carries 1,000,000 passengers daily, but none of the five operating lines was permitted to cross the border dividing East and West Berlin. Lack of trains had compelled the working population in the western sector to limp along on foot, bicycle, overcrowded bus and street car lines.

From Bonn, meanwhile, West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer telegraphed a resident Eisenhower, Prime Minister Churchill and Rene Mayer, head of the caretaker French government, asking them to do all they could to free East Germany by securing unification of the divided country.

Adenauer said only with a unified Germany governed by a freely-elected all-German government could enduring peace be brought to Europe.

As reports flew that the Russians were about to throw out the satellite East German government of Prime Minister Otto Grotewohl, the party declaration attested to the still continuing strikes with appeals to the 18,000,000 captive East Germans to go back to work.

The statement made clear the magnitude of the workers' rebellion—the most gigantic rebellion in the history of Moscow-directed Communism.

"The enemy," the Communists said, incited "millions" of East Germans to take to the streets in wild disorder and "threatened the security and lives of workers of the East German democratic republic."

"The 'Fascist agents' also planned to incite farmers to destroy their crops, the party said.

The Allies already have denied in the strongest terms that they had anything to do with the rebellion.

The Communists said some Western "agents" equipped with weapons and radio sets had been captured on the superhighway, the autobahn, between Berlin and Leipzig. The statement, however, did not elaborate the number, nationality or fate of those reported captured.

The party promised something like a general amnesty to all strikers who would return to work. It ordered officials to differentiate between "honorable workers" and "Western agents who bilked them into this grave error." But it also grimly warned "tens of thousands" of party men that they should have broken the strike and thus had become suspect of playing more than passive roles.

The shaky regime continued to spread thick its promises to the workers.

France Agrees To July 8 as Parley Date

PARIS (UP)—France has told the United States and Britain that it agrees to hold the Bermuda Big Three conference on July 8, a Foreign Office spokesman said today.

The information was sent to Washington and London "through normal diplomatic channels," the spokesman said. He added that the French government was consulted fully before the July 8 date was set.

WASHINGTON, (UP)—President Eisenhower is prepared to go ahead with the Bermuda meeting on July 8 with Winston Churchill even if the French have not succeeded in choosing a new premier, official sources reported today.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerity declined to state this flatly, but he did tell reporters that he expected the president to arrive in Bermuda July 7 and he thought there would be "French representatives" at Bermuda.

PARIS (UP)—Former businessman-premier Antoine Pinay decides today whether he will re-enter the "political lion's den" to try to form a French government in time for the twice-postponed Bermuda Big Three conference.

Pinay, independent party leader famed for his "save the franc" campaign during his premiership last year, was offered the job again last night by President Vincent Auriol.

LINDA HUGGED HIM LIKE A DADDY

Abductor of Winnipeg Child Arrested in Vancouver Hotel

VANCOUVER (CP)—A lonely man with a love for children was arrested here Sunday and charged with abduction of a five-year-old Winnipeg girl.

George Prevost was found in a downtown hotel where police said he lived for two weeks with little Linda Verfallie.

Hotel maids said today he cared for the child "better than the average father."

Fifty-five-year-old Prevost and Linda left Winnipeg 27 days ago. Prevost registered as George Brown and daughter.

At the hotel, Prevost did the little girl's washing, mended her clothes, saw that she had proper meals, and a regular bedtime.

She called him daddy, hotel workers said, and "did everything she was told."

HE LOVED HER

"Linda hugged him like a daddy," said one hotel maid. "He loved her."

The arrest here followed a tip-off by RCMP at Churchill, Man. Prevost had sent a telegram from Vancouver to a friend to wire him $50. He had signed his own name and gave the hotel address.

Twice-married, Prevost was reported to have had an unhappy life, and sought solace with the Verfallie family, showing attention on daughter Linda, who in Winnipeg called him "uncle."

On May 21, Prevost was given permission by the parents to take the girl for a week's holiday to a farm.

Days went by and no word was heard from Prevost. Finally police were called in to start a search. Police could find neither Prevost nor the farm.

The hotel room where Prevost kept the little girl was neat and clean when police entered.

The child was put in care of the Children's Aid Society, and Prevost was lodged in a city jail cell to await the arrival of a Winnipeg police escort.

He is held on a charge of abduction laid by the RCMP.

Near-Riot Marks Funeral Of Atom Spies

10,000 on Hand for
Rosenbergs' Rites

NEW YORK (AP)—Near-riotous scenes of grief and emotion marked the burial Sunday of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg after sympathizers had eulogized the spy team as heroes and denounced the government for their execution.

Mrs. Sophie Rosenberg, 71, mother of the man who died in Sing Sing Prison's electric chair Friday, tried to throw herself across the caskets before they were lowered into a common grave on the south shore of Long Island.

"God help me," she wailed in Yiddish. "To lose two children—to take a mother and father away from two children. Look at those two boxes holding my children."

"God, God, why did you do this?"

Mrs. Rosenberg fainted after being restrained from throwing herself across the caskets.

A crowd estimated by police at 10,000 gathered in the Wood cemetery, 35 miles from New York, as the burial service began.

Members of the committee handling the funeral banished photographers.

The eulogy for the couple who died for conspiring to betray atom bomb secrets to Communist Russia was delivered by Rev. Glendon Partridge of Montreal, a Presbyterian minister.

"They died in the name of humanity, truth and justice," the minister said.

He praised the "true strength of these people who would not put anything—even life itself—above the best they believed in."

INNOCENCE MAINTAINED

The couple maintained their innocence throughout the more than two years they spent in Sing Sing's death house.

The Rosenbergs had been eulogized earlier in a semi-orthodox Jewish service at a Brooklyn funeral home.

Five hundred persons jammed into the largest funeral chapel in the Brooklyn-Manhattan area for the ceremonies.

A crowd estimated by police at 10,000 stood outside in 93-degree heat.

Lawyer Emanuel Bloch, who led the defense of the Rosenbergs throughout the more than two years that preceded their execution Friday, was one of the main speakers at the service.

Bloch denounced the executions as "an act of cold, deliberate murder."

"PEOPLE SHOULD KNOW"

"The people should know," he said as members of the gathering sobbed intermittently, "that America is living under the heel of a military dictator garbed in civilian attire."

He described the Rosenbergs as "sweet, tender, intelligent, cultured people," and said the course they took was one of "courage and heroism."

Rabbi Abraham Cronbach, who presided over the service, drew low hisses and murmurs of "no" from the audience when he said:

"Let us give them (the prosecutors) credit for this; that they did what they thought was right."

HEARING-AID OF THE WEEK

By B. S. H. TYE

PARAVOX TRANSvac

We take great pleasure in drawing to your attention a wonderful new hearing-aid made by Paravox, Inc. It is the "TRANSvac" which has one Transistor and two vacuum tubes.

It gives such clear, natural noise-free hearing that one 55-year-old lady, who had never worn a hearing-aid before, said, "I don't know that I have a hearing-aid on except that I can hear every word." In a letter received recently she states, "My hearing-aid gives me very good service, particularly at church and meetings." Another customer who has worn a hearing-aid for several years, and who is now wearing the "TRANSvac," writes, "Glad to say I am getting used to my little new aid. Thanking you again for good service."

This instrument is not nearly as expensive as our All-Transistor hearing-aid but due to using one transistor the batteries last 63% longer than they would with three vacuum tubes.

If you have any difficulty hearing at church, meetings or in group conversations, you are invited to call at 326 Yarrow Building, 625 Fort Street, for a free demonstration and arrange to take a Paravox TRANSvac hearing-aid home on trial before purchase. If it is not convenient for you to come to the office, I for you to come to call on you by appointment. We will be glad to give prompt attention to out-of-town inquiries.

Fishermen's Strike May End Wednesday

The fishermen voted Sunday in favor of the latest proposal.

Wallace Leads Yachts Home; Lalonga Wins

Winner of the Ben Temple Trophy in the annual Victoria Yacht Club race from Cadboro Bay via Brodie Ledge to William Head and return Sunday was H. V. James Lalonga II.

The "A" Class sloop was second across the finish line, behind H. A. Wallace's Buccaneer III, but won on her time allowance.

Last year's winner, H. M. Young's Alcion, ripped her mainsail on the homeward leg, and finished third under jib alone.

May D. skippered by E. P. Ashe, took the C Class honors after an exciting chase by S. L. Thacker's Wayfarer II. May D was a bad last at Brodie Ledge outward bound, but picked up distance on the way to William Head, and was first around the marker by nearly an hour.

On the way home Wayfarer II gradually closed the gap and less than a minute separated the two yachts at the finish line.

Star Class winner was Peter Thomson's Duz, with Robin Denny second in Tatos.

Aerial, sailed by Eric Dowell, won in the Lightning Class, with Spencer Davies second in Rainia.

Destroyed by Fire Roberts Creek Boy Drowning Victim

HANEY, B.C. (CP)—An early morning fire Sunday destroyed a 900-student high school in this Fraser river town 30 miles east of Vancouver. Damage was estimated at $400,000.

A spokesman for the Haney volunteer fire department said the school was gutted with only one wall still standing.

The fire appeared to have started in the furnace room under the gymnasium.

Police said he was unable to swim. Dragging operations were carried out Sunday in an attempt to recover the boy's body.

Wave of Bargain-Hunters Swamps Picket Line at Cheap Fruit Sale

VANCOUVER (CP)—Bargain-hungry crowds jammed a strike-bound fruit warehouse here Saturday when $60,000 worth of fruit and vegetables went on sale at slashed prices.

The pickets didn't like it and there were some incidents, but generally police maintained order at the gates of the wholesale firm of Slade and Stewart Ltd.

The warehouse workers have been on strike since Tuesday after conciliation board wage awards were turned down by union members.

With the bulk of low-priced food sold, a crowd of 300 supporters of the pickets taunted customers crossing the picket line; one picket was knocked down by a car and for a time real violence threatened as police were called from their posts to participate in civil defense exercise "Be-ware."

Order was restored with the return of police, who unscrambled traffic jams at the warehouse gates.

At one time union members drove their cars to the driveway leading into the plant and stalled them, blocking all traffic to and from the warehouse yard.

Victim in East Berlin Riots

Victim of a police bullet in the East Berlin riot against Red rule writhes in pain as he is helped from the scene of rioting by police. After protesting citizens, numbering over 100,000, could not be quieted, the Reds sent tanks, machine-guns and armored cars to enforce a martial law order. The workers' rebellion saw scores injured and at least two killed.

Week-End Toll In Que. Ont Climbs to 37

Heat Wave Strikes Central Provinces

By BRITISH UNITED PRESS

Cool breezes and thunderstorms displaced an opening-day record-breaking summer heat wave in Ontario and Quebec today while police counted the death toll in one of the blackest week-ends this year.

Preliminary police figures showed 18 dead, including four drownings in Quebec, and 19 dead, five of them drowning victims, in Ontario as residents of the two provinces jammed highways and beaches to escape the heat.

The first day of summer Sunday hit most of central Canada with a searing heat wave and smashed two records in Montreal alone. McGill observatory's high for the day of 91 in the shade was the highest temperature recorded in Montreal any day in the last three years and scorched out the last mark for June 21 of 88, set in 1941, the Dominion public weather office reported.

At one spot in downtown Montreal a thermometer outside the window of a newspaper office climbed past 111 in the sun.

LAKE FOG

It wasn't all balmy, however. Unstable conditions resulted in fog on Lake Superior and the fog was blamed for a collision between two freighters in which one sank and one crewman was drowned. Another freighter, plagued by the same fog bank, went aground when it missed the channel in St. Mary's River.

Wind and lightning damage was reported from southern Ontario. At Stayner, a storm ripped the roof from a garage and carried it 30 yards. Eight persons in the building were unhurt.

Dr. W. Kemp Committed For Trial

VANCOUVER (CP)—Dr. W. N. Kemp was committed Saturday by Magistrate Oscar Orr for Supreme Court trial on a charge of committing a criminal libel on John Perdue, president of the B.C. Social Credit League.

Magistrate Orr deferred the trial to allow Dr. Kemp to arrange formal committal until Monday for $1,000 bail.

The charge alleges that Dr. Kemp, who was an independent candidate in Vancouver Point Grey in the provincial election, libeled Mr. Perdue during the campaign. It alleges that the libel consisted of declaring that Mr. Perdue had been convicted of criminal offenses.

Naden Sailor Dies in Crash At Vancouver

AB John W. Glover, 21, of HMCS Naden, died in Vancouver Sunday, 55 minutes after he was pinned under his motorcycle and a three-ton truck in a street collision.

AB Glover is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mary Glover, 705 McDougall Road, Calgary. Six men, using a heavy jack from a nearby service station, finally managed to raise the truck and the cycle wreckage sufficiently to move the youth clear.

Navy officials here said the body would be sent to Calgary for burial.

EDMONTON (CP)—The RCMP said today that Adolph Prell, 61-year-old farmer of the Breton district 25 miles southwest of Edmonton, has been charged with attempted murder following the shooting of his son-in-law Saturday night.

The victim, Frederick Gurgens, 34, suffered an abdominal wound and is reported in "fair" condition in Westaskin hospital. Prell and Gurgens have bordering farms. Police said the men argued over the razing of a farm building.

Prell was scheduled to appear in magistrate's court at Leduc today.

Twin Sisters Keep Baby-Day Schedule

Some twins look alike, dress alike and act alike, but few carry it as far as Mrs. Joan Sparrow and Mrs. Betty Ferrie did Saturday. They had babies on the same day.

Twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Anderson, 3211 Irma, they even got married on the same day—April 5, 1952.

Nurses at Royal Jubilee Hospital report they differed in one detail, though. Mrs. Sparrow had a boy, Mrs. Ferrie a girl.

Kon-Tiki, Here They Come

EVER since Thor Heyerdahl's "Kon-Tiki" hit the best-seller lists, I've speculated idly on the possibility of knocking together a good red cedar raft and setting sail on it.

Stott

Since the speculation's only idle, I've never figured out a destination. Leaving Foul Bay, though, a wind-and-tide-driven raft would almost inevitably land on San Juan Island. That's where exhausted and inexperienced fishermen wind up when they quit bucking the incoming tide off Trial Island. It's a pleasant kind of dream, the raft trip. You'd just step aboard and coast away, drifting and dreaming. You'd dangle a line behind you and catch a fish when you were hungry, or you'd spread a fine mesh net and gather yourself a mess of plankton.

That's one of the reasons I'm not going to try it. I don't like fish, and plankton—well, I guess a guy would eat anything if he were hungry enough.

Still there's a fascination about rafts. You see it at this season when the kids start coming to the beach to embark as pint-sized navigators. It's about as natural for a youngster to get himself a log or a raft as it is for a duck to swim.

WATCH ON THE SHORE

And that creates one of the problems for people who live on the waterfront. They watch the small fry on their home-made craft and wonder just how long it will be before the kids fall in.

A small boy's raft is a creation of pure faith, a few nails too small to do their job, and certain improvisations that test the principles of physics to the breaking point.

Even if you've never built one yourself in your knee-pants phase—and had it disintegrate under you—you can recognize the instability of the vessels just by looking at them.

And you can recognize something a little more important than the physical frailties of such craft if you look closely at the kid piloting it. He is the spiritual descendant of Lief Eriksson, Christopher Columbus and John Cabot. He's virtually blood-brother to Heyerdahl himself.

Out on the bay—and he invariably goes out over his head—he's inviting disaster and laughing at it. You'll realize that as you yell at him. The conversation will go like this:

"Hey, bub, can you swim?"
"Sure."
"How far?"
"Twice across the Crystal. Why?"
"You'd better get in where it's shallower."
"Hah."

WORRY, BUT NOT TOO MUCH

You worry a little about the kids on rafts at this season, if you live around the water-front. But if you've lived there very long, you don't worry too much. From the modest beginnings on a home-made float, held together by imagination and the careful hand of Providence, come some of the slickest water-rats you'll find anywhere in the world.

They're the boys who'll graduate to row-boats in the next few years and teach you how to handle dinghies with the dexterity of circus performers.

But in the meantime, they'll help to give you grey hairs. They'll remind you to teach them a few lessons in water safety. You owe that much to them. They ought to learn to swim.

The opportunity for that is open to everybody. They ought to know how to hang onto their boats, canoes or rafts if they go overboard. They ought to be taught all the simple rules of self-preservation that every adult, filled with adult nervousness on and in the water, should know.

They're going to fall in. Nothing is more certain. It's up to the grown-ups to see that they know what to do when they land in the saltchuck. And while the adults are emphasizing water safety, they might practice what they preach, too. Who knows they might want to do a Kon-Tiki themselves some day.

FROM WASHINGTON

By JOSEPH and STEWART ALSOP

Luncheon With the Enemy

IT is odd to find oneself seated at a table with the enemy. It is even odder to find that the enemy is a small rather nervous man, with a thin face, long, honey-colored hair, a smart, double-breasted suit, and a fondness for Lucky Strike cigarettes and Seagram's V.O. whisky. This is how the enemy looked, when the First Secretary of the Soviet Embassy agreed to lunch with one of these reporters.

Joseph

Yet across the endless gulch which stretched out across the small restaurant table, the luncheon was a rather genial occasion. Mr. Fedoseev volunteered an admiration for American literature. He had even, he remarked, taught his young daughter some American literature—"Your famous poem, 'I shoot an arrow into the hair'."

Everybody in Russia, he said, learned American literature, "like your great poem, 'Hiawatha'."

As the level steadily dropped in Mr. Fedoseev's glass of Seagram's and soda a curious dual image of the man began to appear. On the one hand, there was a human being. Like other human beings, Mr. Fedoseev was clearly fond of his only daughter. Like other human beings he was worried by such matters as the rent of his apartment—"terribly, terribly high." Like other human beings, he was proud of his country—there was a note of perfectly genuine pride in his voice when he said, "Before the revolution Russia was a backward country. Is not a backward country now, no?"

DIVISION OF MINDS

On the other hand, there was the official Fedoseev, the product of his system. The tone of the conversation remained good-humored, but the minds of the two participants were separated, not by a table top, but by half a world. Then the talk became a futile game of check and double-check:

"Who, after all, started the cold war?" Mr. Fedoseev asked complacently, as if there could be no doubt about the answer.

"You did," was the reply, "when you supplied the Greek Communist guerrillas."

"No, no, you did. The Fulton speech, even earlier."

Once or twice the dialogue became so obviously futile, that both participants shrugged, and dropped the subject. But Mr. Fedoseev, his superiors will be glad to know, was persistent, clever, and well prepared. He was obviously a student, not only of the minor American classics, but of the American press.

He quoted Sen. McCarthy: "Your Sen. McCarthy does not like us, no? But he has said that the United Nations Security Council decisions on Korea was illegal—just what we have said all along." He quoted Secretary of Defense Wilson: "Your Secretary Wilson says our military arrangement are purely defensive and that you Americans need only fear our Russian ideas." Above all, he quoted Sir Winston Churchill, whose speech calling for an East-West meeting he seemed to have learned by heart: "As Churchill said, in negotiating it is necessary to consider not only the security of the West, but also the security of the East."

CAT AND CANARY

At times, he sounded a little like a cat attempting to reassure a nervous canary. "Why do you fear us?" he asked. "An atmosphere of fear is bad for businesslike negotiations. Our policy is a policy of peace."

But the luncheon ended on a good-humored note, as Mr. Fedoseev moistly shook hands, and said, "Next it must be me."

Probably there will be no next time. Enemies do not often or easily break bread together. But as Mr. Fedoseev's small figure disappeared, walking rapidly and nervously towards the Soviet Embassy, it seemed a pity that this should be so. It seemed a pity that the system which Mr. Fedoseev serves, which imperils freedom and may one day imperil the very existence of the United States, should have transformed this rather nice little man into the enemy.

3-D Plans in Britain

LONDON (Reuters) — British movie-makers are waiting until the dust settles over Hollywood before committing themselves to 3-D.

Right now, no British studio is making feature-length three-dimensional films, either stereoscopic or "wide screen."

The big theatre chains are waiting for a definite trend out of Hollywood before installing new equipment in all British theatres. But they have installed the various systems in some big movie houses so that Hollywood "deepies" as 3-D pictures are called here—can be shown, and are carefully watching public reaction. The Hollywood 3-D films are attracting big crowds here.

The frustrating thing as far as British studios are concerned is that they could start production tomorrow. But British exhibitors would go out of business without U.S. films, and British producers must follow where Hollywood leads.

For the moment, the major British studios are continuing to produce two-dimensional films. Behind the scenes they are developing new equipment and building up the 3-D snowball to start it rolling when they know, which way it will go.

That may be next week—or next year. The massive J. Arthur Rank organization, which both produces and distributes, has linked up with 20th-Century Fox's "cinemascope," whereby a wide-angle lens compresses a wide-angle picture onto the standard film, then expands it onto a wide, curved screen. But the company is reticent about production plans in Britain.

Roger Manvell, director of the British Film Academy and a well-known film authority, thinks it's a toss-up between cinemascope, or a variation, and true three-dimensional systems, with their two images and polaroid spectacles.

"The trouble with cinemascope," he said today, "is the curved screen, which can't be installed in small movie houses."

Stereoscopic film making, he said, has the advantage that the same film can be used either in two or three dimensions.

For true stereoscopic 3-D, many producers have their eyes on Stereo-Techniques Ltd., a new company which has the equipment, the know-how and the experience.

The men behind stereo-techniques are Raymond Spottiswoode and Jack Ralph, who developed their system in Canada in conjunction with the National Film Board.

Back here, they produced several short 3-D films for the telecinema, a big hit of last year's festival of Britain. They still are producing shorts and 3-D cartoons.

PRAIRIE ROUND-UP

Edmonton Plane Missing With Two Men Aboard Found Safe

EDMONTON (CP)—Two men missing aboard a light private plane in the southern Yukon since Saturday morning were found safe and sound early today by an RCAF search plane.

Pilot Ralph Wedrig and geologist Dr. Frank Rootes and their float-equipped Waco aircraft were spotted about 6:30 a.m. on the headwaters of the Coal River, about 60 miles northeast of Watson Lake in the southwestern corner of the Yukon.

Ft. Lt. J. Brookfield of Edmonton dropped rations and oil from his Norseman search plane.

The Waco disappeared after taking off from Watson Lake for the north on an aerial reconnaissance for a geological survey. It was found down along its intended return route to Watson Lake, about 780 miles northwest of Edmonton.

The missing aircraft was found just as the RCAF was about to launch a full-scale search. It had planned to send a search master from Edmonton today to direct operations of four search planes.

When Wedrig left Watson Lake Saturday he intended to land and refuel at Anderson Lake, 110 miles north, and continue north about 60 miles to the upper Nahanni River before returning by a round-about route following the Coal River. The Nahanni region is one of the north's most rugged stretches.

The owner of the Waco, Fred Falzell of Watson Lake and Edmonton, reported after a search flight Saturday that the plane had refueled as scheduled at Anderson Lake.

WILL APPEAL SENTENCE

EDMONTON (CP)—Kenneth Popow, 19, sentenced to 18 months Saturday on each of two charges of uttering forged documents, was freed on $2,000 bail when he filed notice of appeal against the sentence imposed by Mr. Justice Hugh John Macdonald in Supreme Court.

CAR CRASH VICTIM

EDMONTON (CP)—RCMP officials said here Sunday that Alexander Gaudet, 67, of Cabri, Sask., was fatally injured late Saturday night when the car he was driving left the road on the Lake Louise-Jasper highway.

The man was reported to be pinned under the car when it got out of control and rolled into a ditch. He died en route to Banff hospital. RCMP say he was alone in the car.

TRAFFIC DEATH

LETHBRIDGE (CP)—Delbert Campbell, 23, of Medicine Hat, was killed and three companions injured when their car was involved in a highway collision near Wilson, about 10 miles southeast of here.

Injured were 18-year-old George Munro of Redcliff, 18-year-old George Lauder of Medicine Hat, and Donald Cummings, 25, of Youngstown, Alta. Their condition in hospital is reported satisfactory.

The bulk of Swedish iron ore exports go to West Germany, Britain, the United States and Belgium.

ISLAND DIGEST

SHAWNIGAN LAKE—Fire Saturday destroyed a log cabin on the Cobble Hill Road near Raymond's Crossing, property of L. J. Smith and occupied by men known as the Cadorette brothers.

The volunteer fire brigade attended three minutes after receiving the alarm. Although the fire was quickly extinguished, the walls and roof still stand. Fire Chief Eric Gibson called the cabin a total loss.

NANAIMO—Junior Chamber of Commerce has referred a plan to erect more prominent street sign in the city to its civic affairs committee, which will study costs and arrange a course of action to carry the plan through.

NANAIMO—Norbert A. Whalen, who died at 10:20 p.m. Thursday when his car collided with a south-bound locomotive at a railway grade crossing between Northfield and Wellington, met death through an accident, according to a coroner's jury. No blame was attached to anyone.

COURTENAY—An IWA safety committee that visited 13 logging and lumber companies in this district received excellent co-operation from management, which in all cases complied with union suggestions toward safer operations, according to Jacob Holst, chairman of the committee for the union's local 1363.

DUNCAN—New officers of Duncan Chamber of Commerce, installed at a meeting attended by Victoria and Nanaimo Jaycees, are Gilbert Thom, president; B. M. Bailey, first vice-president; Derek Chambers, second vice-president; John Taylor, secretary; Bill Freeman, treasurer; Ken Noton and Bob Miller, directors.

CHEMINUS—Ray Millard, fire chief, and Mickey Rubynuk, deputy, have been re-elected by acclamation by Cheminus Volunteer Fire Department. Other elected were Gordon Ledingham, captain; Harry Willson, secretary-treasurer; and W. Brown, advisor.

The fire chief reported 53 fires had been attended in the preceding year.

JOINS FATHER IN PIONEER DRUG STORE

LARRY DAVENPORT

Having recently graduated from UBC with a degree as Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy, Larry Davenport has now joined his father as a partner in the Davenport Pharmacy, on the corner of Oak Bay Avenue and Foul Bay Road.

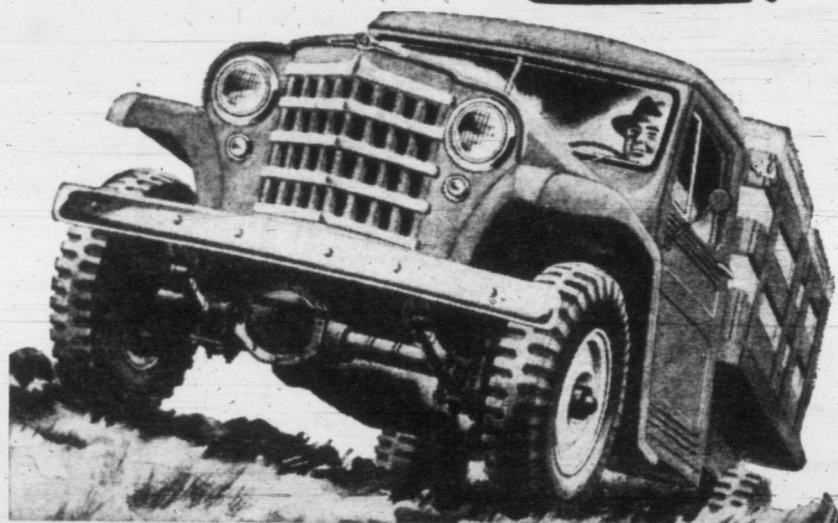

The Davenport Pharmacy has roots that go far back into early days of Oak Bay and back to the distinction of being the first pharmacy in the district. It was first opened in 1912, just across the street from the present location and it has served the public continuously for over 40 years.

For some years it was under the direction of Charles Hudson who built the present premises. Harold Davenport, senior partner in the firm as it is today, arrived in Oak Bay from England in 1911. He followed his profession in Greater Victoria without a break until the war, when he joined the services. On demobilization he purchased the business from Mr. Hudson in 1945, changing the name to that of the Davenport Pharmacy.

The addition of Mr. Davenport's eldest son to the firm brings the number of licensed pharmacists to three, assuring the public of the highest standards of prompt, courteous, meticulously accurate prescription service.

N.C. Catholics Open Churches to Negroes

RALEIGH, N.C. (UP)—All Catholic churches of North Carolina were opened to Negro worshippers under a bishop's ultimatum Sunday but mixed attendance was reported no greater than usual.

The Most Rev. Vincent S. Waters, Bishop of Raleigh, said he would take the responsibility for any "evil" which might result but no incident or public protest was reported anywhere in the diocese.

His order merging the white and negro churches at Little Newton Grove three weeks ago brought angry protests of white parishioners.

WAPAKONETA, Ohio (UP)—Mrs. Frank Wehrle Jr.'s fourth child, a seven-pound, five-ounce son born Friday, was right on schedule.

Birthdays of the other Wehrle children: Laura Joan, June 19, 1950; Nancy Jane, June 19, 1951; and George Joseph, June 19, 1952.

U.S. SPENDS $1 BILLION ON MISSILES

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. defense leaders, convinced that Soviet Russia is making spectacular progress on guided missiles, will spend more than $1,000,000,000 in this field during the next year.

This became known Saturday with the release of testimony by defense experts asking approval of the multi-billion dollar military program for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Loggers' Wage Conciliation Report Due

A conciliation board report on the two-weeks-long hearing of the wage dispute between 32,000 coast woodworkers and their 158 employers likely will be released within a week.

The hearing closed in Vancouver last Friday after submission and discussion of the employers' brief, presented by Forest Industrial Relations Ltd. Board members who will meet this week to prepare their report are F. J. Lynn, chairman, C. George Robson, employers' nominee, and Robert Smiel, Victoria, representing the International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.), bargaining agent for the employees.

The IWA district council policy committee met Saturday in Vancouver to plan its course of action following receipt of the award. If a strike is believed necessary, then a special quarterly council meeting will be called before action is taken.

Chief point in the demands of the IWA this year was a 13-cent hourly across-the-board wage increase.

Ship Collision In Lake Superior Costs One Life

Freighter Sinks After Crash in Fog

PORT ARTHUR (CP)—A collision near the fabled Sleeping Giant sent a grain-laden Great Lakes freighter to the bottom of Lake Superior Saturday night and cost the life of one member of her crew.

The Paterson Steamship Lines' Scotiadic was rammed amidships by the Canada Steamship Lines' package freighter Burlington in heavy fog after both ships sought shelter along the north shore from heavy seas.

The Burlington's how was stayed in eight feet by the impact but she was able to make Fort William, about 20 miles from the collision scene, after rescuing 29 members of the Scotiadic's crew of 30.

Lost was Wallace McDermid, 39, of Sault Ste. Marie, who was hampered by a heavy steel polio brace. He was pitched into the rough water when a lifeboat was smashed while being lowered. McDermid, a porter on the Scotiadic, clung to the ship's log line for nearly half an hour but finally disappeared.

WAR VETERAN
A veteran of the Second World War and a former business man in Sault Ste. Marie, McDermid was spending his second season on the lakes. He joined the Scotiadic to be with another Sault man, his life-long friend, Clifford Humphrey, 33.

Humphrey said he blew the Scotiadic's whistle just before the crash. Later he tried to get McDermid up a lifeline after the lifeboat foundered.

Both ships were reported equipped with radar. Officers of each are said to have known another ship was in the vicinity. Third engineer J. Patterson, 25, of Perkinsfield, Ont., on duty in the Burlington's engine room, said the engines were going full astern at the time of the impact.

Two of those who spent more than 20 minutes in the cold water were Lillian Atkinson, 53, of Fort William, second cook, and Sophie Michasiw, 24, stewardess, also of Fort William. They later received hospital treatment for shock.

An hour after the Burlington left the scene, the Scotiadic still was afloat and could be seen on radar. A RCN Fairmile searched the area all day Sunday and found no sign of the stricken vessel or of McDermid.

YOUR DENTAL HEALTH

By L. G. ROBINSON, DDS

Simple Rules Prevent Tooth Decay

(This is the first of a series of articles prepared by the Dental Association as a public service. They will appear daily.)

Of all living things—plants, animals and human beings, only man tries to alter the order of nature, with results that are sometimes disastrous.

Nature endowed man with a sound body, barring the presence of abnormal conditions, a body equipped with mechanism required to maintain health and resist disease.

Nature also provided man with a bountiful supply of wholesome natural food. That natural food contains all necessary substances for building strong healthy bones and sound teeth, as well as other tissues of the body, so that the whole body may be well prepared for the struggle of existence.

ANIMALS CONFORM
Animals instinctively accept and use the food in the form in which it is found, so conforming to the plan of nature.

Man, in his superior wisdom, improves on nature in many ways; but in the selection, preparation and use of food, he often suffers grievously for his departure from nature's plan.

Whole grains, for instance, contain not only the pure white heart material favored for most flours; it also provides other substances that are necessary for our health. The shell of the grain, with all its valuable material, is carefully sifted out. Previously this was discarded, or used as animal food only.

Now, knowing how valuable these by-products are, we spend much time and effort re-adapting them for human use. The effort is worthwhile, of course. But although we have learned how to take the grain apart, we are far from being as efficient as nature in putting it together again. Something valuable is always lost in the process.

NATURE KNOWS BEST
How much better it would be to take full advantage of nature's offerings by using food in the natural form wherever possible.

Specifically, such misuse of food may be, and often is, reflected obviously and unpleasantly as a major cause of the development of dental disease and decay.

In subsequent articles of this series, food habits and dental decay will be dealt with more fully. They will show how, by following simple health rules, dental decay, one of the most prevalent of human ills, can be almost completely controlled.

(The B.C. Dental Association will be glad to receive questions on matters related to dental health. It cannot promise to answer all questions individually, but matters of general interest will be discussed in this column. Questions should be addressed to the B.C. Dental Association, care of this newspaper.)

Coldwell Would Favor UN Action Against Rhee

CARROT RIVER, Sask. (CP)—CCF leader M. J. Coldwell said Saturday night he would favor United Nations police action in Korea if the South Korean Republic should become the aggressor after a truce.

Stumping through rural Saskatchewan on a federal election campaign tour, Mr. Coldwell was replying to a question from the floor at a public meeting attended by 170 persons in this farming town 250 miles north of Regina.

"I would be in favor of preventing Syngman Rhee from committing any act of aggression," he said. "What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander."

Mr. Coldwell said a CCF government in Ottawa would try to negotiate with Russia but at the same time keep Canada strong. One of the first moves would be recognition of the Chinese Communist government.

In an obvious reference to the United States, he said: "The leading government of the world declares it will not recognize the Chinese government. I don't like a dictatorship, whether it be Communist, Fascist or Nazi or dictatorship like Senator Joe McCarthy has in the United States."

HEAT TOO MUCH
STAATSBURG, N.Y. (AP)—It was a sizzling 93 degrees here Sunday and in mid-afternoon, George Edward Rowe, a 57-year-old farmer, told members of his family: "I can't take this heat anymore." Later the family heard a shot. They found Rowe back of a barn with a bullet wound in his head. He was dead.

PLAY PRODUCER APPLAUDS

Bill Buckingham, well known C.B.C. performer-producer of 'Theatre Under the Stars' at Stanley Park, Vancouver, is used to winning high plaudits for his work.

Speaking of praise, Bill says "I'd like to share the stage with an old friend of mine—Canada Dry. Theatrical work can be pretty demanding, and a few minutes respite is always a pleasant change, especially when there's a cool bottle of Canada Dry in the scene. I can always count on its delightful flavor to renew my enthusiasm."

U.S. Military Strength Deters Reds Says Bradley

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley has told senators he believes Russia is "pulling back" in the cold war because the Soviets fear increased U.S. military strength and need time to consolidate their position at home.

"The second thing is, she probably needs this time to consolidate her position at home—which fits into the first one."

Farm values of Canadian grape crops in 1952 reached $3,050,000.

Bradley, retiring chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, testified recently before the Senate foreign relations committee on the administration's foreign aid bill and his testimony was made public Saturday.

Bradley said he believes the strength already attained by the U.S. has helped deter Russian aggressive moves.

"I think that Russia has pulled back for two reasons," he said. "One is because we have increased our strength and she has run up against a position of strength which she respects and she is now pulling back just as she has done before."

FACTORY METHODS OF RETREADING—
New Tire Mileage With New Tire Safety at HALF NEW TIRE COST!

Victoria Tire Ltd. operates one of the finest tire plants in Canada, equipped throughout with Lodi equipment, handling all sizes and types of passenger and truck tires plus heavy logging and grader tires. Expert workmanship, finest tire rebuilding molds and top quality Goodyear tread rubber enables us to guarantee our retreads to double the life of your tires. Our fleet inspection service can be carried into any logging operation on Vancouver Island.

EXPERT WORKMANSHIP USING LODI EQUIPMENT

Our plant has been equipped throughout by the Super Mold Corporation, of Lodi, California. This is the newest type of equipment for full capping and top capping... manned by highly trained and skilled personnel who perform the retreading job with unerring precision. From the initial inspection, through the retreading process to the final inspection of the new tread, your tire is in the hands of experts with the finest Goodyear materials and equipment to ensure a top-notch retread job.

NEW TIRE PERFORMANCE WITH 40% TO 60% SAVINGS—GUARANTEED TREADS

Get a thick new tread put on your tires just as soon as the old design begins to disappear. To try and squeeze the last few miles from your tires means harder steering, rougher riding... invites punctures, cuts, bruises and blowouts which will damage the casing, the most expensive part of a tire.

OUR MODERN RECAPPING GIVES YOU THESE IMPROVEMENTS:

- CASINGS ARE STRONGER
- EQUIPMENT HAS BEEN IMPROVED
- TREAD RUBBER IS LONGER WEARING
- ADVANCED RECAPPING METHODS
- SKILLED CRAFTSMEN ARE EMPLOYED
- UP-TO-DATE TREAD DESIGNS

Tens of thousands of sound tire casings now in use will easily outlast one or more new treads which cushion and protect them. The recapping we produce can hardly be distinguished from a new tire. Modern tire tread designs include special designs for local climate and road conditions.

OUR FACTORY METHODS OF RETREADING

1. INSPECTING—Tires are placed in a "spreader" and carefully examined inside and out. Tires which cannot be retreaded satisfactorily are rejected.
2. BUFFING—After accurately measuring your tires to insure proper selection of new tread stock, it is carefully buffed to form a rough surface for the laying of new rubber.
3. APPLYING—After a layer of Goodyear vulcanizing cement is applied, a heavy layer of new rubber is sealed to the tread portion of the tire.
4. MEASURING—The diameter and over-all measurements of your tire are taken after the new rubber has been applied, as a guide in adjusting the Lodi mold for proper tread width.
5. ADJUSTING—Tire measurements and Lodi operating charts tell exactly the mechanical adjustments for accurate fit between mold and tire.
6. REMOVING—The depth of the new tread determines the exact time and degree of heat necessary to vulcanize the new tread to the old. The tire has a new, balanced tread when it is removed.

Yanks Eye Record

Could Break All-Time Mark

If New York Yankees keep pouring it on, they'll break the 1906 Chicago Cubs' all-time record of winning 116 games. Unless something cracks, they should be able to take a month vacation in September and bring the Kansas City club to finish out the schedule.

After Sunday's split with Detroit, the Yanks were playing 46-14 ball for a .767 percentage. At the same rate they will wind up at 118-36 for .776. High for the American League is the Yanks' 110 victories in 1927.

The Yanks took advantage of another lapse by Cleveland on Sunday, dividing a double-header with Detroit as the Indians lost to Washington, 5-1. As a result, New York picked up another half-game on the Tribe, now threatened to break the Chicago White Sox. New York won the first game, 6-3, for Whitey Ford on homers by Mickey Mantle, Billy Martin and Yogi Berra but lost the second, 10-3, as Walt Dropo drove in four runs with a homer and two singles. Dropo also hit a four-bagger and drove in two runs in the opener.

EIGHTH WIN

Ford survived a rugged ninth inning in 102-degree heat at Yankee Stadium to go the distance for his eighth triumph after the Yanks knocked out Hal Newhouser in the fourth inning. Billy Hoelt, with the help of Ned Garver, copped the second game, charged against reliever Tom Gorman.

The White Sox came back to cop the second game, 9-4, from Philadelphia, on homers by Fred Marsh, Ferris Fain and Minnie Minoso after Harry Byrd shut them out with seven hits, 5-0, in the first game. St. Louis Browns broke a six-game losing streak on Bobo Holloman's two-hit 20 winner over Boston in the second game after losing the opener 3-1.

BRVES BLANKED

In the National League, Milwaukee staged another of its comebacks to get a 6-6 tie with New York Giants in a second game, called by darkness after eight innings, following a 5-0 defeat in the opener.

Brooklyn bowed to Chicago 3-2 on a 10th-inning homer by Eddie Miksis and Pittsburgh dumped the Cardinals 5-2. Philadelphia split a pair with Cincinnati, winning the first 5-2 but dropping the second 5-3 on Gus Bell's 15th homer with two men on.

Kerrisdale Captures Exhibition Cricket

What more exciting finish could one have to a cricket match than the last man coming in to bat with five runs needed for victory? This was the situation when Albions entertained the Kerrisdale CC of Vancouver at Beacon Hill Park Sunday. Four more runs were scored to make a tie. Then, with Denny Hendra bowling, a sharp chance was hit to his son Melvin at cover point. He dived sideways, left arm outstretched. The ball stuck for an instant, then rolled to the ground, to give Kerrisdale the win by one wicket.

Albions should have won comfortably. Their score of 122 (Gleddeen 32, Mainwaring 35, Jim Oakman 19) was scarcely enough. Nor when two Kerrisdale wickets were down for 52 did it look as if it would be. However, as a result of some fine and accurate bowling by Ted Oakman (6 for 24), wickets fell steadily.

They nearly failed to win at Cowichan on Saturday also. Their score of 174 runs for 7 wickets on this occasion was certainly enough, and they included another splendid Gleddeen century, 102 not out. However, Cowichan still had two wickets standing when the last over was called, and final score was 129, of which Ellis made 43 and Michael Livingston 24.

Sons Surprise Rocks

NANAIMO.—A hard-driving, hard-checking crew of Nanaimo Native Sons dumped the first-place Victoria Shamrocks by a score of 139 in a rugged Inter-City Lacrosse tilt here Saturday night.

It was a sweet victory for playing-coach Arnie Duggan's hub city squad as they gained some revenge for three previous trouncings.

The game left the Shamrocks four points ahead of PNE Indians, and extended the Sons' lead over the tail-end New Westminster Salmonacs to seven points, and only four behind third-place Vancouver.

Sons play Rocks in Victoria Wednesday night.

The up-Island team appeared to serve notice that it is a definite playoff threat.

Farmers Divide Twin Bill

Farmer Construction of the Senior Amateur Baseball League split a double-header exhibition series with Campbell River Athletics at the up-Island city Sunday, losing the first, 14-12, and winning the second, 1-0.

Bernie Anderson paced Farmers with two hits in five trips to the plate while Charlie Boyd smacked a home run for Athletics in the wild scoring first game.

In the second contest Athletic pitcher S. Dagean hurled a no-hit game, but lost, 1-0 when Eddie Dorohoy walked, stole second, went to third on a fielder's choice and came home on a long fly ball by catcher Jack Shields in the second inning.

Lowell Hodges picked up the win and allowed Athletics only four hits while holding them scoreless.

Nine Records Tumble In Island Track Meet

A combination of Northwest collegiate stars, one of the world's greatest high jumpers, and an unknown 14-year-old, flavored with excellent meet organization, produced the tightest track and field dish ever savored in Victoria, Saturday night.

Bruce Humber and Harry Mitchell were the chiefs supreme and one of the largest crowds ever to see a track meet here were more than pleased with their handiwork. Even the threatening weather held back to a few drops of rain, leaving the crowd dry and happy after the last event.

Nine meet records and two B.C. marks toppled as the 28 events were run off in two and a half hours of precision officiating.

Swedish Olympic games star Hutchison, Springbett Split

The second B.C. mark went to another Victoria "Y" runner. Speedy Bob Hutchison posted 22.2 seconds in the 220-yard dash in beating his arch rival, Bruce Springbett, to the tape. In the century dash the two Canadian U.S. collegiate stars shaded 10 seconds for the first time in Victoria with a time of 9.9 seconds. Springbett was the winner in a photo-finish.

College stars dominated the meet. Chunky Des Koch, a University of Southern California

Clement Wins Addison Trophy

Flashy Doug Clement, of Vancouver, and the University of Oregon, took home the Joe Addison memorial trophy for his season, by Eddie Corbett.

Adison's one-time coach, Archie McKinnon, presented the cup to the ex-Olympic games relay point winner.

University of Washington and Oregon freshmen Jim Hilton and Bob Reid put on a great exhibition in the pole vault. Both cleared 12 feet 5 inches but Hilton emerged the winner after several attempts at 12 feet 6.

Humber's "Y" team had little difficulty in winning the open aggregate with a 15-point big over Vancouver Arctic and Seattle Track and Field. The local club had won before they clinched it by taking the mile relay.

Saanich Upset

Hollywood provided the upset in Bantam League baseball at Macdonald Park Sunday when they defeated top place Saanich 10-5. Young George Brice struck out 13 batters for the win.

Esquimalt defaulted to Fernwood in another scheduled game.

Carruthers Nets Four In United's Cup Win

Faced with the possibility of being eliminated from the elite circles of soccer for the remainder of cup play this season, Victoria United took the field one man short at Macdonald Park Saturday and whipped a definitely outclassed Nanaimo Eagles eleven to the tune of 7-0.

The contest was a first-round

Jack Burke Golf Winner

TOLEDO, O. (AP)—Jackie Burke won the $3,400 top prize in the $18,000 Inverness golf tournament Sunday with a two-hour score of 272, a dozen under par.

Burke, with a par 71 on the final round, staved off a late flurry by Freddie Haas to whip the long New Orleans lead by two strokes. Haas won $2,400.

Burke, top man for the first two rounds, was five strokes back with six holes to go, and he picked up three in the stretch.

Burke, suffering with influenza, had eaten nothing for two days until Saturday night. He had rounds of 68, 64, 69 and 71 on the par 71 layout which measures 6,545 well-trapped yards.

The victor had played his first three rounds as he phrased it "filled with penicillin."

Bays, Jokers Meet In Boxla Feature

Multi-Car Crash Marks Shearing's Race Meet

There was action aplenty for fans who braved the chilly weather at Saturday night's joint big car and stock car auto racing meet at Shearings Speedway.

Most of the thrills occurred during the 15-lap stock car main event when eight cars piled up in the middle of Port. Two turn. Ken Kulla of Nor. Alberni was the culprit as he slid high on the corner and lost control of the car, skidding broadside across the track and causing all but two cars entered in the contest to crash one way or another.

The race was re-started and Bruce Passmore, who escaped the first accident, hooked up in a duel with Wilbert Clarke and crashed head on into the speaker pole coming by the grandstand stretch.

Fleming Captures City Golf Crown

Robertson Falters on Final 18

Bob Fleming, B.C. Amateur golf champion, added another title — the men's city championship — to a fast-growing list of golf honors at Victoria Golf Club Sunday.

Fleming, playing the last 36 holes of a 72-hole medal play competition, checked in with a 70-71-141 to add to his first half score, 143, and give him a 284 total.

Jimmy Robertson, who held the lead at the end of 36 holes with 141, fired a 69 on the first 18, but then faltered badly in the last 18 holes and came in with a 76 to give him a tourney total of 286, two strokes behind Fleming.

George Bigelow, who held the lead with Robertson at the 54-hole mark, played a 70-71-142 for 142-87-289 and captured lone net honors with a 269. H. Grebb was runner-up with 281.

Fleming's four rounds were a model of consistency. Five over par in the first 36 holes two weeks ago, he still trailed Robertson and Bigelow by three strokes at the end of the 54-hole mark. While the two leaders wavered, he bucked the tricky off-shore breeze with his straight tee shots and pin-point irons to the greens for a 71, two over par.

It was the third major crown for the Gorge Vale youngster this year. Previously he had captured the B.C. Amateur and the Mid-Island title. He was also runner-up to Bob Morrison in the Vancouver Island Open.

Bob Morrison shot low gross 142 the first day and George Andrews took first day low net honors with 137. Hugh Morrison was awarded low gross of 69-75-144 Sunday and Bill Newcombe had low net with 75-78.

Scores follow:
Bob Fleming 143-70-71-284

MARG TODD DEFEATED IN BRITISH AMATEUR

PORTHAWL, Wales (UP)—Marlene Stewart of Fonthill, Ont., defeated her compatriot, Mrs. J. H. Todd, of Victoria, B.C., 6 and 5, today in the first round of the British Women's Amateur golf championships at the Royal Porthawl course.

In another first-round contest, Mary Gay of Galt, Ont., eliminated Brenda Popplestone of Britain, 3 and 2.

Miss Babs Davies of Vancouver, B.C., defeated Zoe Hudson of New Zealand, 5 and 3.

Tyee Pitchers Earn Their Keep

Victoria 1-5, Edmonton 3-0
Tyee pitching, which once was supposed to be the key to the club's success this year, last week overshadowed the club's hitting to a great extent.

Winding up with Saturday's split in the double-header against Edmonton Eskimos, the Tyees winning the night contest, 5-0, after losing the afternoon game, 3-1, lone pitchers gave up just 13 runs in seven games during the home stand. Eleven of the 13 runs were earned.

Though Bill Prior was the big man of the week against Calgary and Edmonton, winning two games, Bob Drilling was the only one to get a shutout in the series finale against the Eskis.

The big right-hander, who has been the victim of unfortunate circumstances in most of his games, engaged in a fine pitching duel with Jack Widner before the Tyees broke loose with all their five runs in the eighth inning.

Second baseman Don Pries struck the key blow scoring Lou Branham, who had singled, for the tie-breaking tally. Dwane Helbig followed with a two-run single and Granny Gladstone played the final marker.

100TH WIN

In the afternoon John Conant won his 100th WIL victory as the Eskimos scored three runs in the first inning off Earl Collins, Tyee left-hander. The Eskis were held to two hits the rest of the way by Collins and Bill Bottler but the opening outburst was enough.

Tyees open a three-game series at Edmonton tonight.

On the player front is the announced signing of Jim Harford, a 20-year-old Victoria boy, who has been purchased from Yakima. Harford, a former teammate of Berlyn Hodges, at Moose Jaw last year, will join the club at Edmonton.

TWO ONE-HITTERS

Kiwanis, Odd Fellows Little League Victors

John Ballach hurled one-hit ball for North Kiwanis as the league leaders abruptly halted Rotary's two-game winning streak in the Little League Baseball circuit, blanking the last place club, 7-0, at Little League Park Sunday.

In the second game of the double header, Steve Bishop matched Ballach's performance and his team, Odd Fellows, stayed close on the leaders' heels by taking a 5-4 decision from Gyros.

In the first contest Kiwanis notched one run in the first inning and then cinched matters in the sixth with a six-run outburst.

Rod Woolfs paced the winners at the plate with a double and single.

U.S. Weather Chief Says Atomic Blasts Influence Locality Only

WASHINGTON (UP)—Francis W. Reichelderfer, chief of the U.S. Weather Bureau, said today there is no scientific evidence that atomic explosions "influence the weather only within a very few miles of the explosion."

In a copyrighted interview with U.S. News & World Report Magazine, he said "mountains of observational data" accumulated by the weather bureau "seem to provide no basis at all for supporting the suggestions that atomic explosions in Nevada are responsible for this spring's violent tornado season."

Reichelderfer agreed that there have been an unusual number of tornadoes so far this year—upwards of 200 already compared to average of 149 a year. But he said one possible explanation is that the weather bureau's newly-established tornado warning network is reporting twisters that would have gone unreported in earlier years.

A more basic explanation, he said, is that "the usual thing about weather is that it is unusual in some place or other. Normal weather is mostly a mathematical fiction."

Reichelderfer conceded that "nobody can rightly make the flat statement that there can be no relationship" between atomic explosions and weather disturbances.

But he cited this scientific finding to show that any weather disturbances caused by an A-bomb blast are extremely "local" in their extent.

The energy released by an atomic blast, while tremendous by human standards, is puny by nature's standards. It would take about 1,000 atomic explosions a minute to match the energy release of a single moderate-sized hurricane. A mere rainstorm of moderate intensity releases energy at a rate of three atomic bombs a second.

'She's Back on Broadway'

Beautiful Virginia Mayo heads the stellar cast of "She's Back on Broadway," Warner Bros. musical film which opens today at the Royal Theatre. Gene Nelson, Frank Lovejoy, Steve Cochran and Patricia Wymore have other important roles.

AW, FORGET IT!

Ad's Bad, Bill's Sad About a Cad

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Bill Conner lost his wallet June 3. He placed the following advertisement in Madison newspapers, June 4:

"Lost—man's secretary. Important papers, reward."

Several days later, he worded it this way:

"Lost—man's secretary. Keep the wallet—but please send back important papers. Reward."

Still unsuccessful, on June 12 he inserted this one:

"Lost—man's secretary. Do unto others as you would have others do unto you. Reward."

Sunday's version:

"This is the 3rd in a series of ads placed by Bill Conner, regarding his lost wallet. Keep the wallet. Keep the money. Keep the papers—in fact, forget about the whole darn thing."

Ike May Make U.S. European Aid Decision

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower probably will have to decide this week whether he wants to put heavy financial pressure on America's Allies to speed agreement on a West European army.

The House of Representatives last week voted to withhold by law about a billion dollars in foreign aid funds until European Defense Community (EDC) treaties are ratified. Sunday, Senator Robert Taft (Rep., O.) suggested a compromise which would give the president discretionary authority to do the same thing.

Legislative leaders may find out at a White House conference Wednesday whether the president believes such a financial threat to West European countries would be wise.

The EDC treaties, ratified so far only by Western Germany, could call up 500,000 from six countries for service in a unified army.

CCF Leader Would Veto Freight Boost

CARROT RIVER, Sask. (CP)—CCF leader M. J. Coldwell has charged the board of transport commissioners with permitting railways to impose higher freight rates in the west to balance rates in the east where competition from water transport was keen.

The railways earned twice as much in the west as they did in the east although the volume of trade in the east was far greater. The federal government should use the Railway Act to stop a 7 per cent increase granted by the transport board from becoming effective.

Manitoba Bush Pilot Found Alive, Unhurt

WINNIPEG (CP)—A bush pilot, missing three days on a short flight in northern Manitoba, today was found unhurt beside his downed plane by an RCAF search plane.

A signal from the searchers said Garnet Kolesar of Taylor Airways at Wabowden, Man., apparently ran out of fuel on a short flight with a load of fish Wednesday.

'MOST DANGEROUS ENEMY'

Farouk's Son May Prove Key in Egypt Intrigue

FRASCATI, Italy (Reuters)—A 17-month-old boy played and slept in a flower-filled Frascati garden today, oblivious of the fact that he may become the centre of a story intrigue to restore the Egyptian monarchy.

The boy is ex-King Faud II of Egypt, who lost his throne last Thursday when Gen. Mohammed Naguib proclaimed Egypt a republic with himself as president.

A burly bodyguard, watching over the sleeping babe, said: "There is Naguib's most dangerous enemy."

This idea he got from Faud's father, ex-King Farouk, who phoned from Paris when he heard of Naguib's latest move. "My son may become the rallying point for the movement that will one day regain the throne. Our enemies know this and may try to do him harm. Protect his life, if necessary with your own."

No one knows what is going on in Farouk's mind, but observers now are wondering if he intends to start a monarchist movement to return his son to power.

Vigilant Youngsters on Hot Dog Patrol

Next time the Kiwanis throws a picnic for their proteges of the Kiwanis Safety Patrol they likely will hold sports events first and eat afterwards.

Saturday night they held a picnic for 350 safety patrolers and promised them all the hot dogs they could eat. The kids did little else.

The youngsters stormed MacDonald Park and the big food tent promptly at 6:30 p.m. They lined up for free tickets for "dogs," drew a weiner-and-bun and a bottle of pop, then lined up again. This continued until 9 p.m. when everything was eaten but the mustard paddles.

Foot races and baseball were minor attractions.

Kiwanis members and their wives never stopped slicing buns, fitting weiners and slapping grubby fingers out of the mustard jars. But they had as good a time as the kids.

The first organized Methodist Church in the United States was founded at Baltimore, Maryland, in 1784.

St. Joseph's Baby Show Had 275 Entries

Kim Gage Wins 'Best Baby' Award

Kim Gage, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Gage, of 2064 Quimper Avenue, won the Best Baby in Show championship trophy from a field of about 275 at the annual St. Joseph's Hospital Junior Auxiliary baby show Saturday afternoon.

Young Kim also emerged the winner in the six months to one year class.

A "contented baby" award went to Teresa Gloria Chung, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Chung of Torquay Drive. Champion twins were James Lyle and John Frederick Dodge, sons of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dodge of R.R. 4, Victoria.

An estimated 300 applications were received by the show committee and between 250 and 275 babies attended throughout the afternoon in the nurses' auditorium of St. Joseph's.

Other winners were: Nancy Anne Charles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Charles of 509 Galiano Crescent, Belmont Park, best girl in the one-to-six-months class; Alan John Wilkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wilkinson 1258 Montrose Avenue, best boy in the one-to-six-months class; Linda Alice Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Miller, 3870 Epsom Drive, best girl in the six-months-to-one-year class.

Norman William Eden, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Eden, 1417 Vancouver Street, took the oldest child championship event.

Twenty-two-day-old Catherine The Schneider was the youngest baby entered. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Schneider, 1512 Fell Street.

Proceeds from the show will help to furnish a playroom in the children's ward at the hospital. Baby show committee comprised: Mrs. M. J. Lowery, Mrs. Teresa Hickman, Miss Yvonne Taylor, Mrs. Jean Barber, Mrs. Betty McDonald and Mrs. Patricia Watson.

Student nurses and Sister Superior Rose Mary and Sister Mary Loretto helped organize the event.

Cathedral Classes Romp On Happy Valley Outing

Happy Valley was the best named place on earth on Saturday afternoon when 160 children, parents and teachers of Christ Church Cathedral Sunday schools went on their annual picnic, held at the South Vancouver Island Rangers' rifle range.

A program of races for primaries, juniors and seniors proved popular. The highlight was the boys' pie-eating race which saw all records swept away. In an afternoon of uproarious fun, the biggest laugh came in one of the mass tug-o-war—no one was barred if he could get a hand on the rope—when the rope parted under the terrific strain.

It was hard to recognize the children who, during every Sunday morning service, leave their parents and demurely follow their banner through the cathedral aisles to the Memorial Hall for their weekly classes. It was hard to recognize, too, the sweet-voiced choir boys who sang J. S. Bach's "God My Shepherd Walks Beside Me" on the CBC's "Parade of Choirs" radio program last Thursday evening.

All three cathedral schools—Memorial Hall, Niagara St. Hall and the Seamen's Institute Hall—took part in the romp which was organized and run by the three superintendents, J. P. Frampton, D. Taylor and H. W. Sparks.

BETWEEN TIMES

TO MONTE ROBERTS

Now, what were we talking about two weeks ago?

Most likely it was the weather. Well, all I have to say about the weather is, I am not surprised to return from my holidays and find that weatherman Bill Mackie is in Ottawa. After the kind of climatic conditions he served up during the past fortnight, he should leave town.

You will be glad to know I did not waste my holidays. They gave me a chance to view the British Columbia political picture in proper perspective, and I can now state what is wrong with it.

The B.C. political picture is not nearly confusing enough. All the alternative voting system has achieved is a delay of less than a month in finding out who won. This is not nearly long enough or confusing enough. I suggest we work out a new system for the elections, based on the method of handicapping used in yacht races.

The yachtsmen have a delightfully complicated system of handicapping, based on a whole series of factors, such as sail area, displacement, waterline length, fore triangle and so on.

Thus the first yacht across the finish line is not necessarily the winner. In fact, it is not even likely to be the winner.

Until the racing committee has worked out the results, this usually takes about the same length of time required to work out true plans in Korea.

A similar handicap system for electoral candidates would add much to the drama and suspense of an election.

Politicians would be given vote allowances on the basis of net-and-gross-boatage, width between the ears, size of hat band before and after election, lung power, and beam. An astute race committee (or election committee) could easily take so long to pick the winner that it would be time for another election before the results were announced.

One of the important features of this plan is, nobody could be "agin the government."

There would be no government to be agin.

I think I will take some more holidays.

City to Get More Air Raid Sirens; Exercise Success

Victoria's battery of air raid sirens will be increased following complaints that their warning was not heard in all sections of the city during Saturday's civil defense exercise.

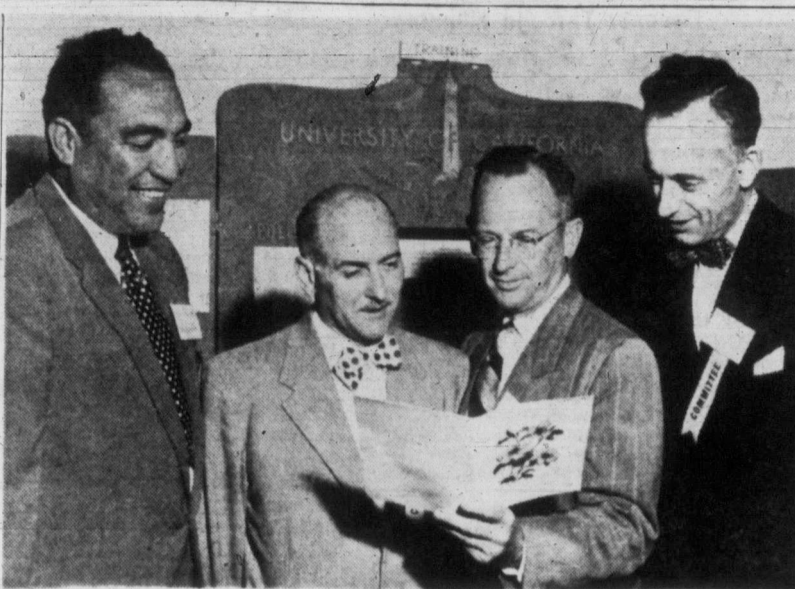

"We have five additional sirens in stores now," target area director L. G. Hatcher said today, "but we have never received the switching gear for them."

He added that if sirens still could not be heard when those on hand are installed, the city would obtain others.

Thirteen sirens sounded during the exercise. OFFICIALS PLEASED The inadequacy of the sirens was the only disappointment in the drill, according to authorities. Mr. Hatcher was especially proud of the rescue crews and casualty clearing unit in the exercise.

Local CD workers also were praised by top training officer in Canada, Col. C. L. Smith, who came here from Ottawa to watch the proceedings. He commented on "... public enthusiasm and a high degree of training of CD personnel here."

Provincial authorities said they will be unable to make an overall assessment of the widespread exercise before the end

Civil Services Advised To Bait Hooks for Staff

Private Enterprise Getting Cream Of UBC Grads, Professor Claims

Civil services must compete actively with private enterprise for the best type of employees in order to give taxpayers the best value for their dollar, according to Prof. E. D. McPhee, director of the UBC School of Commerce.

Speaking today at the opening session of the 22nd western conference of the Civil Service Assembly in the Empress Hotel, he had considerable criticism to make of government employment practices.

"At UBC, from January on, representatives of private firms are seeking new employees, and doing an excellent selling job," he said. "But the government sends a circular, formal and precise, that has as much appeal as a left-over lunch."

Prof. McPhee told the 125 delegates representing personnel directors from civic, state and provincial, and federal levels in British Columbia, seven western states of the United States, Alaska and Hawaii, that civil service represents 10 per cent of the working force.

"Because governments now undertake projects beyond the limitations of private enterprise, these people are responsible of the wise spending of an increasing amount of the national revenue," he said.

He suggested the British tradition of extending the permanent or "career" service was better than the United States policy of short-term employment, and that civil servants want to see "professional" rather than "political" appointments.

He said one Canadian government department broke with tradition by sending a representative to interview college graduates, and won the applications of most of the class.

"There is too much screening in your service, and not enough going after the people you want. It is poor use of public money not to follow through and employ them," he said.

"Young people today are not attracted by the highest salary, but by the knowledge of where they are going in a job," Prof. McPhee said. "You also lose many prospective employees because of the interminable time it takes you to tell them they are hired."

No department can afford not to have a training scheme, he said, with the objective of reducing by 50 per cent the time it takes an employee to become proficient in his job.

Delegates were welcomed by Agriculture Minister Kenneth Kiernan on behalf of Premier W. A. C. Bennett.

Brigadier's Rank Awarded Robert Purves

Col. Robert Lloyd Purves, 40, of Victoria, has been promoted to the rank of brigadier and will become chief of staff of central command in September, Army headquarters announced Sunday.

Col. Purves was born in this city and educated at Victoria High School and Victoria College before going on to the University of British Columbia where he received his B.A. He is the son of Mrs. F. W. Purves and the late Mr. F. W. Purves, 163 Wildwood Avenue.

"Oh, good for Robert," Mrs. Purves said this morning on hearing the news. "I hope it will mean he will be able to come home and see me," she said.

For the last two years Col. Purves has been chief of staff and assistant military attaché at Washington. He will be succeeded there by Col. H. L. Meuser of Regina and Ottawa. Col. Meuser is now attending the National Defense College at Kingston, Ont.

Col. Purves served in the Calgary Highlanders before joining the 14th Armored Regiment, in 1941. He was a squadron commander in the 14th during the invasion of Sicily in 1943 and later became commander of the 11th Armored Regiment of Ontario.

He received the Distinguished Service Order for action in the Mediterranean theatre. In 1948 Col. Purves was appointed director, Royal Canadian Armored Corps at Army headquarters, Ottawa. In May, 1951, he was posted to Washington.

The 38th anniversary dinner of the 48th Battalion (3rd Canadian Pioneer) will be held Saturday night in Lougheed's Banquet Hall, Douglas Street. Dinner commemorates the departure of the battalion from Victoria February 15, 1915, for England and France under the command of Lt.-Col. W. J. H.

Careening Car Drops Driver Before Crash

$200 Fine Follows Freak Mishap; Tourist Banned From B.C. Roads

A freak accident, in which a somersaulting car threw the driver clear, landed on its wheels and careened into bushes off Gorge Road, brought driver Frank Therios, of Arnprior RCAF station, Ontario, into court today.

He was charged with driving while his ability was impaired. He was fined $200 and lost his license for a year.

Constable Robin Stewart told the court accused's car went up a bank at George and Harriet, turned over on its side, threw the driver out, righted itself and finished up in the bushes on the other side of the road. About $400 damage was done to the car. The driver was unhurt.

Visitor's Car Held for Security

Graham asked that he be given time to return to the United States to get money for the fine. Magistrate Hall ordered his car held as security.

James D. Waldron, 617 Admirals, pleaded guilty to careless driving following a Saturday night accident on Cloverdale. He was fined $40 and his license suspended.

Court was told that accused, driving on the wrong side of the road, collided with a car driven by Kartar Singh, 3287 Tenbyson.

About $450 damage was done to the cars.

Edward Alfred Shirliff, Victoria, suffered bruises and was treated at Royal Jubilee Hospital Sunday afternoon when he was struck by a car driven by Ernest L. Dunn of the fisheries patrol boat Howie at an Elk Lake gas station on East Saanich Road.

Fireboat Crew Spots Danger, Drowns Blaze

Tugboat Trooper Drops Her Tow

Prompt action by the crew of the fireboat Trooper put out a waterfront blaze this morning before it could develop to serious proportions.

The fireboat was towing a scow past the VMD, Bay Street, when crewmen saw smoke coming from an old wharf under Point Ellice Bridge.

Fire Chief Frank Briers said the crew "dumped" the scow, called the Victoria Fire Department and tackled the blaze.

It was the fireboat's first serious action in such a role. "Damage was negligible, but it had got out of hand, it might have resulted in a serious blaze," said Chief Briers.

Saanich Staff To Hear Terms Of Wage Pact

Municipal employees will be informed at a meeting tonight of details of the "satisfactory" wage agreement with Saanich council which brought to an end the month-old municipal strike Friday.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the Douglas Street CCF Hall. The agreement will be outlined by T. C. Gooderham, spokesman for the Saanich Municipal Employees' Association.

Reeve Joseph Casey said the agreement will not be made public until the details have been ironed out by both parties and the wages adjusted to the satisfaction of everyone.

The reeve added that a council meeting scheduled for tonight is postponed until next Monday.

The majority of outside and inside municipal workers returned to work this morning. There are about 150 employees affected.

H. D. Dawson, municipal engineer, said work gangs are being reorganized and work on all major projects in the municipality should be in full swing by the end of the week.

Few strikers sought work elsewhere, Mr. Dawson said, and all key men are back at their jobs.

Driver to Serve 14-Day Jail Term Without Option

A 14-day jail sentence was imposed against James E. C. Nash, commercial traveler for a Vancouver firm, when he pleaded guilty in city police court today to a charge of driving a car while his ability was impaired by alcohol.

It was his second conviction on a charge of impaired driving and Magistrate H. C. Hall explained the law allowed no alternative to the jail sentence.

Court was told that the Nash car was weaving badly over Gorge Road Saturday night—traveling a block on the wrong side of the road, forcing traffic to stop.

Accused admitted a previous conviction for impaired driving in August, 1952.

Damage was medium to cars driven by Gary Richardson, 129 Menzies, and Henry Renes, 1107 View, when they collided at Richmond and Haultain at 2.05 a.m. Sunday, city police reported.

ASK THE TIMES

Q—What is the caloric value of bananas? I always thought they contained mostly starch, but doctors recommend them for very young babies nowadays.

A—A small banana would provide about 90 calories. However, it is not for their caloric value they are fed to infants. It is chiefly because they are soft, non-fibrous, and are easy to digest besides being palatable. A banana is higher in calories than an apple.

Q—When did the original steamship Princess Patricia arrive in Victoria? She plied many years between Nanaimo and Vancouver.

A—March 18, 1912. She made the 15,000-mile voyage from Glasgow in 60 days. There was no Panama Canal then. Newspapers named her "Speed Queen of the Pacific."

Q—Anyone wishing a question answered is invited to send the problem along to "Ask The Times," addressed to "The Times," 1111 Douglas Street, Victoria, B.C. All questions should deal with matters of fact and be of general interest.

AS WE LIVE

Self-Improvement Can't Be Forced on Someone

By ELIZABETH B. HURLOCK, PhD

Some people are only too eager to get advice about how to improve themselves. Others resent it bitterly. One woman writes:

(Q) "My 17-year-old daughter is very much in love with an 18-year-old boy. My husband and I have always been active in young people's societies and we feel we know and understand young people. They often come to us with their troubles. Now this boy whom our daughter loves comes from a separated family. His parents pay little attention to him and he has no one to account to. He resents us because we wish to help and advise him. We have asked him to give time to his studies now and get his diploma. He can do so because he is smart. He thinks we only want to keep him from our girl. What can we do to convince him that we are only trying to help him improve himself?"

(A) When a person does not want to improve himself, you will only antagonize him with your suggestions. The desire to improve must come from within.

Indirectly you could generate this desire through your daughter. Try to make her see what a handicap it would be for him not to finish high school; how it would keep him from getting along in life.

If she is seriously interested in him and has any thoughts of marriage, his success is a matter of great concern to her. Get her to see this.

Point out to her how serious this boy's resistance is. Because she is in love with him she is doubtless blind to this fault. But if she should marry him, she would have to live with it—and, as you know from matric experience, the person "who knows it all" is a very hard one to get along with.

If you have a personal problem, write Elizabeth Hurlock in care of this newspaper.

You Can Have Good Menus Cheaper Through Planning

Yesterday I reviewed the basic seven food groups for you. frozen fruit juice is more economical than fresh juice.

Poor nutrition is not good economy whether your food budget is large or small. Actually, many homes in which the budget is luxurious have malnourished families because of lack of knowledge about what the body needs for vibrant health.

If you would like to have my leaflet, "Vitamin Defense," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 37, addressed to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Donation — A donation was voted to the Salvation Army at a recent meeting of Lodge Primrose No. 32, Daughters of England. Members were reminded of the visit to Weston's Bakery, Thursday at 9:30 a.m. It was decided to hold a card game on the next social evening.

You can make substitutes from leftovers or "specials" you find at the market if you substitute in the same food class. In other words, cheese is not a substitute for orange juice nor is greens a substitute for meat. Choose from those foods which are in season whenever possible because these are less expensive. Can or quick-freeze foods when they are in season for use later on.

Buy in as large quantities as practical. This is less expensive. Cook your vegetables in as small an amount of water as possible and save any pot-liquor to put into gravies and soups. Use the tops of beets and the rougher portions of celery as well as the leaves of cauliflower and celery to fill out the vegetable list and for an increased vitamin intake.

Buy the cheaper cuts of meat and cook them longer. Use also as well as butter. Use dry milk solids of evaporated milk in sauces and soups and so forth.

Use top milk for cream rather than buying the heavier cream. Fish is often cheaper than meat. Use it once a week, anyway.

Nourishing and palatable main dishes can be concocted with lentils, dried peas or beans, or kidney, lima or soy beans. These give you a fine quality of vegetable protein.

Grade B and C eggs are just as healthful as grade A eggs and they are cheaper.

Breads and cereals are inexpensive and nutritious if they are whole grain or reinforced. Dried fruits are usually inexpensive and good.

Her ankle-length gown of white satin, veiled lace, was fashioned with full skirt, and bodice with rounded neckline and short sleeves, both with scalloped edges trimmed with pearls. Her chapel veil was held with a satin headress studded with pearls and her bouquet was red roses and ivy leaves.

Matron of honor Mrs. Catherine Packford wore a ballerina-length yellow satin gown with matching headband and mauve gladioli bouquet. Sister of the bride, Miss Jean Cairns, the junior bridesmaid, was in pale blue ballerina-length frock with

Shirley Cove, Petite Bride, Wed At Metropolitan United Church

Petite Shirley Mae Cove exchanged wedding vows Saturday night at Metropolitan United Church, with Reginald Alexander Barlow Young, son of Mrs. Mary M. Young, Ville St. Pierre, Montreal, and the late R. G. Young. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cove, 552 Paradise Street, Victoria.

Dr. F. E. H. James was officiating clergyman. Two tall baskets of summer flowers decorated the church and during signing of the register, Miss Kathleen Paulin sang "All Joy Be Thine."

Mr. Cove gave his daughter in marriage and the blonde bride was a dainty picture in a gown of white lace and net over satin. The bodice of lace featured long fitted sleeves and two layers of net formed the skirt. An embroidered design in pearls and bugle beads enhanced the neckline and front of the bodice. A coronet matching the design held her floor-length veil and she carried a colonial bouquet of red roses and white sweetpeas with long matching streamers.

Miss Brahma Hooper was bridesmaid in mauve taffeta with overskirt and small bolero of net. She wore a wreath of mauve and white lilac in her hair and carried a colonial bouquet of buff roses and wine accessories. As flower girl, Diane Frampton wore a yellow taffeta dress trimmed in blue and held a nosegay of pale blue sweetpeas and buff roses.

Garfield Young, was his brother's best man and ushers were Gerald Cove, brother of the bride, and George Johnson. Mrs. Cove, in an Elizabethan pink two-piece suit with gardenia corsage and Mrs. Young wearing a dress of navy blue lace over taffeta with gardenia corsage, assisted in receiving guests at a reception at Olde England Inn. A four-tier cake made by the bride's mother was cut and a toast proposed by William Erb. During the reception, Miss R. J. R. played favorite songs of the bride and wedding guests.

For a honeymoon on the mainland and traveling through the United States, Mrs. Young donned a pale grey suit with wine accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. Upon return the young couple will live at 1310 Dallas Road.

Church of Our Lord Scene Of Double-Ring Ceremony

In a double-ring ceremony at Church of Our Lord on Saturday evening, Ruth Mary Emerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Emerson, 2222 1/2 St. James, exchanged wedding vows with Dennis Patrick Poole, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Davis, 1484 Myrtle Avenue. Rev. J. G. Brown officiated at the ceremony.

Uncle of the bride, Frank Brawn, sang "Because" during the signing of the register.

Entering the church on her father's arm, the bride was lovely in a floor-length gown styled with lace bodice featuring Elizabethan collar and lily-point sleeves and a skirt of nylon net inset with lace panels over satin. A pearl coronet held her fingertip veil of net edged with lace, and her colonial bouquet was of pink roses and lily of the valley.

Maid of honor was Miss Margaret Moss, wearing a floor-length gown of yellow net paneled with satin, bolero, and tiara of yellow flowers. Miss Elaine Farmer, bridesmaid, wore a similar ensemble in mauve. They both had rhinestone jewelry.

Miss Carol Emerson and Miss Susan Hill were flower girls. They were dressed in mauve organdy with mauve velvet bows and pleated organdy caps.

Best man was the groom's brother, Philippe Joseph Poole, and ushers were Richard Emerson, brother of the bride, and Roger Henly.

The reception was held in Loughheed's Banquet Hall, where Mrs. Emerson, in a tangerine redingote-style dress with navy blue accessories and white carnation corsage, and Mrs. Davis, wearing a turquoise silk jersey dress, white accessories, and pink rosebud corsage, assisted in receiving guests.

A. H. Piggott proposed the toast. After a honeymoon in Seattle, the couple will make their home at 2561 Victor Street. For traveling, the bride wore a pink

Child Who Fears People Should Be Calmed; Changed Gradually

Fear is a strange thing and even the youngsters do not always avoid it. Q—I have a three-year-old daughter who is afraid of people, and when a stranger walks in the house she runs away screaming. Is this just a habit and will she outgrow it, or what? Mrs. B.

A—One would guess that this little girl had been frightened at some time by something which perhaps even the mother did not know about. Every effort should be made to keep her calm and unexcited and to gradually help her to get away from this habit.

Q—Whenever I have an open wound, even a paper cut or skinned ankle, the healing seems slow. Almost immediately after the injury a deep scar forms, underneath which is always an infection. After a few days the scar must be removed, leaving a deep hole which heals within a day or two. Do I have a deficiency or what is the trouble? Mrs. H. H.

A—This is a peculiar kind of healing since one would not expect this to occur unless the object causing the injury carried germs into the wound. Perhaps this is what happens, and if such wounds are not too frequent and healing does come anyway, it should cause little concern.

Q—How much water should the average person take each day, and is it possible for the body to become waterlogged? D. L.

A—There is no absolute standard. I suppose for the average person from four to six glasses of water a day or the equivalent in other fluids would be enough. This would vary with age, with the amount of exercise, with the temperature of the outside air, and many other things. It is possible for a person to become waterlogged. Ordinarily this does not develop, providing the heart and kidneys are normal, since the latter will eliminate any excess fluid.

Vigilance Group Pledges Support To Drew's Tories

TORONTO (CP).—Farley Faulkner announced Sunday that his Vigilance for Freedom movement will support the Progressive Conservative party in the Aug. 10 federal election campaign.

Mr. Faulkner, organizer of the movement and sponsor of an anti-Communist rally at Massey Hall last March, said in a statement he entered domestic politics reluctantly but did so because he interpreted recent speeches by External Affairs Minister Pearson as meaning Mr. Pearson favors admitting Communist China to the United Nations.

Mr. Faulkner said he and the leaders of seven ethnic groups supporting his movement "believe that a vote for George Drew is a vote against Communism."

Safeguard Asked
Against Reds in Uranium Fields

SASKATOON (CP)—Roy Ruemper, a delegate to the Saskatoon district Labor Council (CCL), has demanded immediate action by the Canadian Congress of Labor to offset attempts by the allegedly Communist-dominated International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (Ind) to organize workers in the uranium fields of northern Saskatchewan.

Mr. Ruemper, representing the Saskatoon local of the Communications Workers of America, criticized slackness which he said had allowed the mine-mill union to start organization of the uranium miners without a move from either the CCL or Trades and Labor Congress unions.

He said he thought both national organizations had fallen down in allowing the mine-mill union to be the only one organizing in northern Saskatchewan.

The council approved a resolution that a letter be sent immediately to CCL secretary-treasurer Donald MacDonald asking that an organizer be sent into northern Saskatchewan.

Cambodia King Ready To Lead Freedom War

BANGKOK (AP)—A Cambodian government spokesman said today "Cambodians are ready to die for independence. This means an independence war, but the king is first watching French movements and awaiting French initiative."

The spokesman, Krengnill, said young King Norodom Sihanouk authorized the statement.

The king returned to Cambodia Saturday from self-imposed exile in Siam and became commander-in-chief of the independent Cambodian army in response to the people's request, Krengnill said.

Krengnill said the 31-year-old Norodom has received reports France has prepared three battalions of Africans at the capital city of Phnom Penh, and has distributed arms to French residents. Krengnill stressed that if the king leads a war it would be a nationalist campaign rather than Communist.

He said the king left Bangkok Saturday because political refugee etiquette prevented independence activities which would embarrass Thailand's relations with France.

Norodom previously said he left his country to endorse his independence movement.

SONGBIRDS BUD WITH SPUDS

Eat Fried Potatoes And Hear Birdies Sing

WASHINGTON (UP)—Eat fried potatoes for breakfast if you want a yard full of songbirds this summer.

That's the advice of Dr. A. Remington Kellogg, director of the Smithsonian Institution's national museum.

Kellogg is a biologist and a member of various organizations dealing with such things as mammalogy, herpetology, and zoology. In this case, however, he talks not only from his educational background, but from years of experience of eating fried potatoes for breakfast.

HARRY S. DRIVES TO TOWN

Truman, Bess, Margaret Have Washington Reunion

WASHINGTON (UP)—Mr. Harry S. Truman was back in town today, an ex-president with nothing much to do and tickled to death about it.

"No politics," he insisted to reporters and photographers who turned out to record his first visit to the capital since he moved out of the White House in January 1953.

But old friends figured he could scarcely avoid some behind-the-scenes political discussion. They noted he plans to have dinner with some of his former cabinet members Tuesday and lunch with Democratic senators Wednesday.

Mr. Truman breezed into town Sunday night, just before supper time, driving his own shiny new black Chrysler. He was in his shirtsleeves because of the sweltering first-day-of-summer heat.

"One-hundred-and-five in the shade," he breathed as he cooled off in an air-conditioned suite in the Mayflower Hotel with Mrs. Truman, who made the two-day drive from Independence, Mo., with him, and their daughter Margaret who came down from New York to make it a family reunion.

Mr. Truman, facing a battery of television and newsreel cameras in his sitting room, said he has no plans to visit President Eisenhower.

"I see no necessity for it," he said. "He's too busy to see every Tom, Dick and Harry that comes to town. I don't know any reason he'd want to see me. I'm just a private citizen."

Young Douks Migrate To Okanagan Farms

KRESTOVA, B.C. (UP)—Young Sons of Freedom Doukhobors, dedicated to more peaceful ways than their elders, started migrating today, but not to long-sought new homes in Central America.

The young Doukhobors, members of the newly-formed "Christian Reform" group, left their Kootenay Valley homes for the Okanagan Valley, where they obtained part-time employment in the fruit industry. They expect to remain in the Okanagan throughout the summer fruit thinning and fall harvest operations.

Many may never return to the Kootenays, an elder Doukhobor declared.

Hall's Followers Walk Off Jobs to Tie Up Hawaii Port

HONOLULU (AP)—Hawaii's army port which handles cargo for Korea was hit Sunday by the protest walkout of followers of labor leader Jack Hall, convicted as a Communist conspirator.

Hall's 26,000 followers appeared bent on tying up all waterfront and sugar and pineapple plantation activity.

Unofficial reports said 11,000 workers were off their jobs during the week-end, and also said the walkout would continue until Tuesday.

Hall and six others, one a woman, were convicted Friday of conspiring to teach and advocate violent overthrow of the government. The trial lasted seven months and 15 days.

Eight Saved When Cars Stall on Rail Tracks

WHITBY, Ont. (UP)—A family of five persons jumped to safety Sunday and watched a passenger train smash their car at a crossing 11 miles north of Whitby.

Arthur Brunning had started to drive across the tracks when the motor of the car stopped.

OSHAWA, Ont. (UP)—Three men leaped out of their stalled car only seconds before a fast passenger train demolished it at a crossing here Sunday.

The driver—Thomas Robinson, 26, of Prince Albert, said the auto stalled on the rails.

Syrians Will Vote On New Constitution

DAMASCUS (AP)—Syrians will vote July 10 to accept or reject a new constitution providing an elected president for the middle east country.

Canadian Track Standards Fall

MONTREAL (CP)—Two Canadian records were broken Saturday at the women's provincial track and field championships here.

Joan Wood of the Montreal Olympic Club won the intermediate 100-yard dash in 11.3 seconds, one-tenth of a second better than the previous Canadian mark.

Rosella Thorne of Montreal Olympic, a member of Canada's track team at last year's Helsinki Olympics, shaved one-tenth of a second off the senior mark for the 100-yard dash, covering the distance in 11.0.

NEW STOCK EXCHANGE

CALGARY (CP)—Calgary's 40-year-old stock exchange, whose activities have ebbed and flowed with the ups and downs of Alberta's oil industry, will move into a home of its own for the first time about July 1.

In the new quarters it purchased this month—a two-story building on 7th Avenue and 5th Street West—the 74-member exchange will be outfitted with the latest facilities, including a ticker service from Toronto, a 60-foot stock quotation board and space for 50 telephone booths, an increase of 18.

The latest Alberta oil boom born with the Leduc discovery in 1947, has made the move necessary for the exchange, which has occupied rented quarters at four Calgary locations since it was incorporated in December, 1913, and started operations the following May.

Agricultural co-operative societies were organized in Nova Scotia late in the 18th century.

Pearson Doubts Drew Able to Keep Promise

Tory Leader Would Have to Double Taxes To Keep Pledges Made, Says Minister

AURORA, Ont. (CP)—External Affairs Minister Pearson said here Saturday night that Progressive Conservative leader George Drew would have to double present Canadian taxes to fulfill all the pledges his party made during the last session of Parliament.

Mr. Pearson spoke at a York North Liberal convention which nominated Jack Smith as Liberal candidate for the August 10 general election.

Commenting on the election manifesto issued by Mr. Drew in a speech in Guelph last Friday, Mr. Pearson said the opposition leader should disregard generalities and show where he hoped to save $500,000,000 in taxes if the Progressive Conservatives were elected.

"The present federal budget is about $4,000,000,000," Mr. Pearson said. "About half of that goes for defense, roughly 47 cents in every dollar. Another 25 cents goes for social services, 10 cents for debt retirement, leaving 18 per cent for other expenditures."

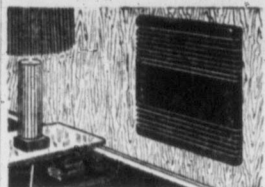

"If Mr. Drew won't cut expenditures or social services, then the $500,000,000 must be saved out of the 18 per cent."

He described Mr. Drew's 16-point program as "16 points which point to all points of the compass, indeed, boxing it."

"The Liberal party, standing on its own record of achievement, would not enter into a competition with any other political party in promises to the electorate," Mr. Pearson said. "Canada is not going to be auctioned off."

Hugh R. Burkman, 305 Huntington Place, was fined $50 and $3 costs by Magistrate A. I. Thomas in RCMP court at Colwood Saturday when he pleaded guilty to unlawful possession of liquor—beer—while being under the age of 21 years.

HURT BY HUNT STATEMENT

Guide Defends Everest Role

KATMANDU, Nepal (AP)—New bickering revolved today about the conquerors of Mount Everest. Since their ascent of the world's highest mountain, the climbers or their supporters have been plunged into at least four wrangles.

Most of them concern Tensing, the veteran climber from Nepal's Sherpa tribe who made the final push to the top with New Zealander Sir Edmund Hillary.

The previous bones of contention have been:

1. Just who reached the top first, Hillary or Tensing?
  2. What is Tensing's nationality, Nepalese or Indian?
  3. What decoration is Britain going to give the tribesman—the prized George Cross, the not nearly so valued George Medal, or something else?
- And now, Tensing told reporters after his arrival here, he "feels hurt" by statements made recently at a press conference by Col. Sir John Hunt, the leader of the successful British expedition.

Tensing took exception particularly to statements credited to Hunt that the Asian climber, although a full member of the party, played only a secondary role as leader of the porters, and that Tensing "is a good climber within the limits of his experience."

Tensing said he'd been a member of seven of the 11 Everest expeditions, "was born in the foothills of the Himalayas, bred in the atmosphere of the Himalayas and have seen more climbing of the Himalayas than anyone in the world. I know both sides of Everest, the Tibetan and the Nepalese side. And yet my leader says my experience is limited."

On the successful climb, he asserted, "I practically directed operations from Katmandu, erecting camp sites, cutting steps and crossing icefalls."

Tensing, Hillary and Hunt all have emphasized they considered the question of just whose foot was first on Everest's top immaterial, that it was a team operation.

Hunt, however, said Hillary in the final climb was seen leading most of the way. Asking, "Why not give the devil his due?" Tensing said actually he was a few steps ahead to the top, though he emphasized: "The credit goes to both. We both reached the summit almost together."

Regarding his nationality, the Sherpa has said only: "I was born in the womb of Nepal, but brought up in the lap of India." Though born in Nepal, he now lives in Darjeeling, India.

Reports soon after the Everest conquest said the Queen was going to present to the coveted George Cross, Britain's highest award for civilian valor, to Tensing. She already has knighted Hunt and Hillary for their climb.

But touchy Asian pride was affronted by subsequent rumors that Tensing would get only the lower-ranking George Medal. So far British officials have said only that they are discussing with Nepal's government what decoration would be suitable.

Both Tensing and Hillary will be given a specially-designed gold medal by India at a reception June 29.

NICKNAME 'BETTY' NO NEWS HERE

COWDRAY, PARK, Eng. (AP)—Queen Elizabeth is still plain Betty to her handsome husband, the Duke of Edinburgh.

"The Queen—was—watching the Duke play polo here Sunday when he rode up to her box and tossed her his dark glasses, saying:

"Catch these, Betty." Queen Betty missed, and a lady-in-waiting retrieved the glasses.

"The fact that Queen Elizabeth is 'Betty' to her husband comes as no surprise to Victorians. They recall a story of the couple's visit here in October, 1951, when the then Prince Phillip was heard to call his wife 'Betty' coming down in an elevator of the Empress Hotel."

U.S. Sends Message to Syngman Rhee

Couriers Carry Secret Dispatch

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two assistant secretaries of state were to leave here by special plane this afternoon with a message from State Secretary John Foster Dulles to President Syngman Rhee of South Korea.

The state department in announcing this gave no hint about the nature of the message.

An announcement said assistant secretary Walter S. Robertson, who is in charge of Far Eastern affairs, would fly to Seoul accompanied by assistant secretary Carl W. McCordie, who is in charge of public affairs. Kenneth T. Young, director of the Bureau of Asian Affairs, will go with them.

State department officials in discussing the message sent to Rhee said reporters could be doubly since it has been carefully checked at the White House and represents President Eisenhower's views on the Korean crisis.

CLARK SEES RHEE

SEOUL (AP)—Gen. Mark Clark, United Nations commander, said today he is authorized to sign a Korean armistice even if South Korea does not agree to it.

The UN commander-in-chief did not say whether he would sign a truce; "that depends on instructions from my government."

He made the statements to reporters after conferring an hour and a half with South Korean President Syngman Rhee.

Clark said he was encouraged by the talk.

He indicated Rhee does not now plan to yank his 16 Korean divisions from the UN.

Clark said it has always been his understanding that if Rhee should consider taking such a "disastrous action" the South Korean president would "discuss it with me before he came to a decision."

"That time has not come," he said. Clark was asked whether he would sign an armistice without Rhee's advance approval.

He replied that the armistice is between the UN commander and the Red Chinese-North Korean command.

"I am authorized to sign an armistice," he said.

Edmonton Air Crash

EDMONTON (CP)—Police reported an airplane crashed in Calder in suburban North Edmonton about 11:30 a.m. today. First reports indicated it was an RCAF plane. Calder is a short distance from the municipal airport. No further details were immediately available.

European Army Chief

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today nominated Maj. Gen. Cortlandt Van Rensselaer Schuyler to be chief of staff of the European defense forces under Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther.

QUEEN TO START GRAND TOUR

Scots Prepare Royal Welcome

EDINBURGH, Scotland (UP)—Queen Elizabeth comes to Scotland Tuesday to begin the grand tour of her realm that will take her round the world.

The rousing welcome awaiting her from the Scots underlined Elizabeth's popularity as individual Queen to all her peoples.

London has had its Coronation. Now it is the turn of Scotland and then northern Ireland, Wales and the Dominions across the seas. The Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh sail late this year for Australia, New Zealand and Ceylon by way of the Panama Canal.

In this birthplace of the Stuarts, Elizabeth will get a tremendous welcome climaxed by a magnificent ceremony Wednesday when she will ride with her husband in an open carriage to St. Giles Cathedral for a "Second Coronation."

There the "Honors of Scotland," the regalia of the Scottish kings, will be borne before her to the altar where they will be the first time they have been carried in procession since George IV visited Scotland 131 years ago.

Edinburgh was as jammed today as was London at the height of the Coronation observances. Hotel rooms were sold out weeks ago and hundreds of visitors were staying in Glasgow, an hour's train ride away.

Elizabeth will stay in Scotland until next Monday. She also visits Paisley, Glasgow, Ritherlen, Lanark, Hamilton, Motherwell, Airdrie and Coatbridge. On Friday she presents colors to the 1st Battalion, the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders.

JOHN CHRISTIE PLEADS INSANITY

British Clerk Christie Goes on Trial For His Life for Murder of Eight Women

By ROBERT BRANSON

LONDON (UP)—Owlsh John Christie, who has confessed the murders of four women, today pleaded not guilty by reason of insanity to charges of murdering his 55-year-old wife.

The mild-mannered British clerk, called London's most blood-thirsty sex killer since Jack the Ripper, had to be prompted by his attorney before entering his plea. He is accused of slaying seven other women.

His defense counsel promptly advised the court that the defense would be based on a claim that Christie was insane at the time of the murders.

The defense strategy was revealed by Derek Curtis-Bennett, chief counsel for the thin-haired former air-raid warden, whose "house of horror" on drab Notting Hill yielded eight female bodies.

Christie went on trial for his life at London's grim Old Bailey for only one of the murders of which he is accused—that of his 55-year-old wife, Ethel. This is in keeping with British law.

But Christie has admitted under questioning that he killed three other women, allegedly because they made excessive sexual demands on him. Scotland Yard authorities unearthed four additional bodies in the garden behind his shabby flat.

REQUIRED BY LAW

At the opening of his trial, Christie pleaded innocent. Such a plea is required by British law of anyone accused of murder.

But after the formality of the plea of innocence, Curtis-Bennett, famed criminal attorney, said the defense will acknowledge freely that Christie killed four women. He said he would examine witnesses in connection with all four deaths. In addition to strangling his wife, Christie has acknowledged killing Hectorina MacLennan, 25; Rita Nelson, 24, and Kathleen Maloney, 25. He sealed their bodies behind flowered wallpaper in a cupboard in his apartment.

A number of witnesses, including Mrs. Christie's brother and sister, Henry Waddington and Mrs. Lily Bartle, of Sheffield, told the court how Christie sent them false messages pretending his wife was still alive after her murder.

SPRINKLED DISINFECTANT Other tenants of the dismal block of flats told how Christie continually sprinkled disinfectant "all over the place" early this year and a Sheffield bank manager testified that Christie withdrew his wife's bank balance weeks after her death by forging her name.

The trial was recessed until Tuesday morning, after five and one-half hours during which the defense laid the groundwork for its insanity plea.

U.K. Aluminum Trading

FORESTRY MAN WILL FIGHT SUSPENSION

A. B. Crowe Starts Grievance Action

One of two senior civil servants suspended last week by the provincial government has decided to start grievance proceedings through the B.C. Government Employees' Association.

A. B. Crowe, forestry department—mechanical superintendent suspended by Lands and Forest Minister R. E. Sommers for allegedly failing to follow proper procedure on handling of tenders, said today he will go ahead with grievance action unless the association starts it without his request.

"I feel I can't take it any longer," Mr. Crowe said. "I simply can't take this lying down."

Lou Holker, one of the three Oak Bay Sores protesters, said today he will quit the Social Credit party, "unless they play the game and run things on the level."

"At first I thought I'd just sit back and take it. But now I realize if I don't fight, it makes it look as if I'm guilty. And I'm definitely not guilty."

"I have an open and shut case. I know I'm in the clear. The more I think of it the more I know I must fight this action. "It's an absolute injustice."

MEET TODAY

Mr. Crowe is waiting to hear from the executive of the government employees' association which is meeting in Vancouver today. He said it's possible the association may fight his case without a request for an official complaint from himself.

"If they don't go ahead on their own, I'll file grievance procedure," said Mr. Crowe. "This will force an inquiry into the issue."

NO COMMENT

Meanwhile, D. A. C. Smith, purchasing commission buyer who also was suspended for one month, remains silent about his future action. He declined to comment on the possibility of his starting grievance action.

Mr. Smith, who has worked for the government for 30 years, plans to go away for a week's rest.

Premier W. A. C. Bennett, who Saturday refused to lift the suspensions, and Finance Minister Einar Gunnerson, who refused to make public the tenders involved, have left town for a Toronto party conference.

Mr. Gunnerson, replying to the Oak Bay Sores Association's request for a public inquiry into the suspensions, said "if it becomes necessary, we'll hold an inquiry when the House sits."

The Legislature is expected to meet September 15. The suspensions expire July 15.

CLOSED SESSION

The Oak Bay group will meet Wednesday night at St. Mary's Hall, Yale Street, in closed session to discuss the issue.

The government holds that the two officials acted wrongly, but not dishonestly, in allowing a Vancouver firm to revise its bid on a $16,000 grader after tenders had been opened.

Russians Admit Violence Continues Against Regime

By TOM REEDY

BERLIN (AP)—Communist East Germany admitted today sabotage has occurred in the Soviet-managed uranium mines and that violence has continued elsewhere against the Red puppet regime.

The Communist party leadership hurled new face-saving charges, claiming that Western agents had parachuted into East Germany to spread havoc after the workers' revolt flared last Wednesday. United States officials labelled the accusations as fantastic.

ADN, the Soviet-controlled news agency, said it had received reports that the anti-Red mutiny had struck in the Saxony uranium fields which have been exploited by the Russians since 1947 in the atomic weapons race.

No estimate of damage was given. A West Berlin newspaper, Telegraf, reported Sunday that 100,000 Germans went on strike Thursday in the Saxony uranium mines after a Soviet firing squad executed 12 anti-Red demonstrators. The strikers represented more than one-third of the men in the mines.

Charges that American and West German money and effort supplied paratroop saboteurs to keep the flames of revolt alive were contained in a Communist party declaration which pleaded with East Germans to get back to work and support the Red government. The party declaration said a "great number" of the paratroopers had been captured but admitted that in the sixth day of Soviet martial law "quiet is not yet entirely secured."

Paratrooper Accusation Denied

U.S. officials in Berlin in denying the paratrooper accusation said the Russians had recorded only one violation of the East zone's air sovereignty outside the Allied corridors this month and that was 10 days ago. It involved an American jet fighter plane. Said a senior-American official:

"The idea of parachuting underground saboteurs into the Soviet zone is ridiculous. They'd better realize as long as this Communist gang is in power there are already 18,000,000 there."

The sealed-off Soviet sector released trains for West Berlin's elevated system, which carries 1,000,000 passengers daily, but none of the five operating lines was permitted to cross the border dividing East and West Berlin. Lack of trains had compelled the working population in the western sector to limp along on foot, bicycle, over-crowded bus and street car lines.

From Bonn, meanwhile, West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer telegraphed a resident Eisenhower, Prime Minister Churchill and Ren Mayer, head of the caretaker French government, asking them to do all they could to free East Germany by securing unification of the divided country.

Adenauer said only with a unified Germany governed by a freely-elected all-German government could enduring peace be brought to Europe.

As reports flew that the Russians were about to throw out the satellite East German government of Prime Minister Otto Grotewohl, the party declaration attested to the still continuing strikes with appeals to the 18,000,000 captive East Germans to go back to work.

The statement made clear the magnitude of the workers' rebellion—the most gigantic rebuff from a captive civilian population in the history of Moscow-directed Communism.

The "enemy," the Communists said, incited "millions" of East Germans to take to the streets in wild disorder and "threatened" the security and lives of workers of the East German democratic republic.

"The 'Fascist agents' also planned to incite farmers to destroy their crops, the party said.

The Allies already have denied in the strongest terms that they had anything to do with the rebellion.

The Communists said some Western "agents" equipped with weapons and radio sets had been captured on the superhighway, the autobahn, between Berlin and Leipzig. The statement, however, did not elaborate the number, nationality or fate of those reported captured.

The party promised something like a general amnesty to all strikers who would return to work. It ordered officials to differentiate between "honorable workers" and "Western agents who bilked them into this grave error." But it also grimly warned "tens of thousands" of party men that they should have broken the strike and thus had become suspect of playing more than passive roles.

The shaky regime continued to spread thick its promises to the workers.

LINDA HUGGED HIM LIKE A DADDY

Abductor of Winnipeg Child Arrested in Vancouver Hotel

VANCOUVER (CP)—A lonely man with a love for children was arrested here Sunday and charged with abduction of a five-year-old Winnipeg girl.

George Prevost was found in a downtown hotel where police said he lived for two weeks with little Linda Verfaillie.

Hotel maids said today he cared for the child "better than the average father."

Fifty-five-year-old Prevost and Linda left Winnipeg 27 days ago. Prevost registered as George Brown and daughter, At the hotel, Prevost did the little girl's washing, mended her clothes, saw that she had proper meals, and a regular bedtime.

She called him daddy, hotel workers said, and "did everything she was told."

HE LOVED HER "Linda hugged him like a daddy," said one hotel maid. "He loved her."

The arrest here followed a tip-off by RCMP at Churchill, Man. Prevost had sent a telegram from Vancouver to a friend to wire him $50. He had signed his own name and gave the hotel address.

Twice-married, Prevost was reported to have had an unhappy life, and sought solace with the Verfaillie family, snowing attention on daughter Linda, who in Winnipeg called him "uncle."

On May 21, Prevost was given permission by the parents to take the girl for a week's holiday to a farm.

Days went by and no word was heard from Prevost. Finally police were called in to start a search. Police could find neither Prevost nor the farm.

The hotel room where Prevost kept the little girl was neat and clean when police entered.

The child was put in care of the Children's Aid Society, and Prevost was lodged in a city jail cell to await the arrival of a Winnipeg police escort.

He is held on a charge of abduction laid by the RCMP.
